I am a sinner. We have all done things that God has commanded us not to do. We are born with a natural bent toward sin.	God will judge my sin. Because God is a fair judge, he must punish sin. To let us off the hook would be unjust. We need a savior!	Jesus lived in perfect obedience to God his entire life, then he died as the substitute payment for our sin.	He rose the third day, and he is now at the right hand of Father as an advocate for those who have received him. One day he promises we will join him in Heaven!	If I receive him, God will save me.

Discussion questions:

1. Help each member of your group identify the fact that they are sinners.
2. Do you believe that God will one day judge sinners for their sin? (see Ro. 6:23)
3. What did Jesus do so that sinners can be forgiven?
4. Why could Jesus be our substitute? What was different about him?
5. Ask if there is anyone in your group who is ready to repent and believe. If they are, lead them in prayer. If you are uncomfortable with this, seek out a leader.
