GIFT EXCHANGE

I RUIN II REDEMPTION III REJECTION IV RESPONSEABILITY

ROMANS 1:24-32~DECEMBER 11, 2016

Are you a good person?

Exchange 1. _____

Galatians 5:19-21; Colossians 3:5-6; 1 Corinthians 6:9–11

Exchange 2. _____

Exchange 3. _____

Matthew 19:4–6

What do we do?

1.

2.

What God does?

1.

2.

3.

Books to Check out:

- What Does the Bible Really Teach about Homosexuality? -Kevin DeYoung
- Is God Anti- Gay?- Sam Allberry
- The Secret Thoughts of an Unlikely Convert- Rosaria Butterfield

NEXT WEEK: Romans 2:1-5

Questions for the Community

1. What grew you, challenged or encouraged you this week during the worship service? (songs, people, prayer, sermon, Scripture)
2. Read the whole text out loud. How do you see the 3 exchanges mentioned on Sunday in everyday life? Is the progression mentioned in Romans 1 seen in USA?
3. Contrast “not ashamed” (16) with “shameful acts” (27) What is the response of the Christian to a surrounding world that condemns good things and celebrates evil? Explain the response you think Jesus would have.
4. 2 chron 28:1-5 and 22-27
5. It’s easier to see idolatry and immorality in other times and places. Read 2 Chron. 28:1-5 and 22-27. How is acclimating to surrounding godless ways foolish BOTH short term and long term? What can we apply to our setting and topic today?
6. Discuss the many different ways Christians should be talking to others about same-sex attraction, gay marriage and a host of other topics related to those who identify as LGBT. Do you agree with the list, would you add others? Are you open and willing to be God’s agent of reconciliation to this community?