Student Ministry Director

Intro
The leadership team at Eastpoint Christian Church is in search of a dynamic and experienced leader for the Student Ministry Team. Our vision is to see Gospel transformation in greater Portland through our mission of making disciples of Jesus who share Him with others - especially through our students! We continue to see God move in the hearts of people in the post-Christian culture of southern Maine and we are anticipating greater impact in the days ahead. Our hope is that a Student Ministry Director will lead out of a place of abiding in Jesus as they equip leaders in practical and engaging ways to make an impact in this region for the sake of the Gospel. Please take the time to read through this job description and apply if you believe it to be an opportunity that you feel both called and excited for.

Role Summary
Lead the Student Ministry Team in alignment with the vision, mission and values of the Eastpoint Christian Church family. Through enthusiastic leadership, connection and training, the Student Ministry Director will develop a culture where leaders and teams are equipped and inspired to disciple students who share Jesus with others. One of the emphasized focuses of this role is to connect with and care for leaders consistently.
