PURPOSE

Leadership Mansfield is a program offered to community leaders who live or work in Mansfield ISD, and who want to help lead positive growth in our community. The purpose of Leadership Mansfield is to motivate and encourage local leaders to:

- deepen and broaden community engagement;
- foster creative dialogue concerning issues facing our city;
- build relationships with diverse leaders across various sectors.

Participants are introduced to state, county, and city officials, school board trustees and administrators, community leaders and community boards and commissions. In-depth presentations, tours and conversations allow participants to see our city and region in a whole new way.

OBJECTIVES

Leadership Mansfield has the following objectives:

- To engage participants with Mansfield's history, government, social needs, opportunities, and existing processes.
- To encourage dialogue between classmates, alumni, and current leaders of Mansfield.
- To encourage ongoing active community service that positively contributes to the quality of life in the Mansfield area.
- To provide current and future employers with a source of knowledgeable and trained leaders who can and will have a positive impact on the business community.
