 Beloved	 Belonging	 Building	 Transforming
I come to worship when I feel a need.	I attend worship regularly and see the need to pay attention to God every day.	I attend worship regularly, and also set aside time for daily personal worship.	I honor God in every aspect of my life; work, play, and relationships.
I appreciate the loving actions of Christians who include me.	I receive God’s love and offer it to others.	I extend God’s hospitality to people inside the church and beyond.	I intentionally build relationships with people outside the church to share God’s love.
I am drawn to God’s love and want to explore the faith and the scriptures.	I am opening up to Jesus through daily prayer, scripture, and devotional reading.	I am exploring new spiritual disciplines to increase intimacy with Jesus.	I am responsible for my spiritual growth and I share what I experience with others.
I am learning about Jesus’ teaching through classes, groups, or Bible reading.	I have accepted Christ, joined the church, and am becoming more like Jesus, and serving others.	I apply scripture to my life and allow others to hold me accountable in love to it.	I am stepping out, trusting in God, to help others grow in their faith.
I notice disciples who selflessly serve others and I want to make a difference as well.	I am serving to discover how God has gifted me and it is fulfilling.	I have discovered my gifts and passions and now serve regularly because it keeps me close to Christ.	I love Jesus therefore I join him in mission.
I contribute financially occasionally when I attend worship.	I am giving financially more and more regularly.	I am tithing or moving toward it, and I examine how I spend the other 90% of my resources.	I am tithing and reordering my life to free up even more for God’s use.
