

NOTES

WHO HE IS. WHO I AM. WHO WE BECOME.

2 SAMUEL 9

KEY SCRIPTURES

1. 2 Samuel 7:18
"Who am I, Sovereign LORD...?"
2. 2 Samuel 8:15
David did what was "just and right" for all his people.
3. 2 Samuel 9:3
David wants to show "God's kindness" (hesed).
4. 2 Samuel 9:7
"You will always eat at my table."
5. Romans 5:8
"While we were still sinners, Christ died for us."

1

WHO HE IS
The LORD shows kindness

- David asks, "Who am I?" as he considers God's goodness.
- The LORD chooses and blesses David; David cannot repay Him.
- Hesed is faithful, covenant-keeping love.
- David looks for someone to whom he can show God's kindness.

2

WHO I AM
A place at the king's table

- Mephibosheth was affected by circumstances he did not choose.
- David restores Saul's land and promises a permanent place.
- He calls himself "a dead dog," yet is treated like a son.
- David's kindness changed his circumstances, even though he remained lame in both feet.

3

WHO WE BECOME
Kindness becomes action

- David remembers his covenant with Jonathan.
- He actively looks for someone he can bless.
- The kindness we receive shapes how we see and treat others.
- Am I actively looking for opportunities to bless the people the LORD has placed in my life?

THE GOSPEL CONNECTION

- Christ died for us while we were still sinners.
- He invites us to His table and calls us His children.
- Jesus' faithful love toward us shapes how we love others.

HESED

Faithful, loyal love — love that honors a promise and acts for the good of another.

THE KING'S TABLE

A place of welcome — Mephibosheth is provided for and treated like one of the king's sons.

"...transform the way I understand others—not as my enemy, but as my neighbor." — Chad Frey

MAIN TAKEAWAY

Seeking God's Kingdom means allowing the LORD's kindness toward us to shape how we see and treat others.

REFLECTION
Who has the LORD put in my life that I could bless?
