

March 2021

SENIORS ON THE MOVE WITH JESUS

Romans 14:5 ESV One person esteems one day as better than another, while another esteems all days alike. Each one should be fully convinced in his own mind.

Offbeat Holidays You Can Celebrate in March

MARCH 1: NATIONAL PIG DAY Sure they like to roll around in mud, but that's just a pig's clever way of keeping cool on a hot day. Pigs are fascinating creatures—and one of the most intelligent members of the animal kingdom. Spend the first day of the month paying tribute to oinkers around the world.

MARCH 3: WHAT IF CATS AND DOGS HAD OPPOSABLE THUMBS DAY They would rule the world is what.

MARCH 4: NATIONAL GRAMMAR DAY The people who care most about this holiday will also want to know that National Proofreading Day is just a few days later, on March 8.

MARCH 6: MIDDLE NAME PRIDE DAY Time to celebrate the names of those long-lost relatives, your mom's maiden name, or whatever middle name your parents decided to give you—embarrassing or otherwise.

MARCH 7: GENEALOGY DAY It's been a long winter, and March just wants to make sure you didn't forget who you are.

MARCH 9: PANIC DAY The Hitchhiker's Guide to the Galaxy enthusiasts may struggle to fully embrace this holiday, but this March 9th event encourages you to indulge all of your deepest fears and let loose a rampage of unbridled hysteria. Observational practices may include—but are certainly not limited to—tearing out one's hair, sobbing uncontrollably on the subway, running around the office in a flop sweat and screaming at the top of your lungs, or finally breaking ground on that underground bunker you've always dreamed of building.

MARCH 16: EVERYTHING YOU DO IS RIGHT DAY Yes, that's correct. We couldn't agree more.

MARCH 22: NATIONAL GOOF OFF DAY Relax, take a break, play hooky—or just goof off in your own quiet way at your desk. (But if you tell your boss we're the ones who suggested it, we'll deny it.)

MARCH 25: TOLKIEN READING DAY This annual holiday was started by The Tolkien Society back in 2003, and gives you a great excuse to re-read The Hobbit and The Lord of the Rings sagas again, or for the very first time.

MARCH 30: DOCTORS' DAY Symbolized by a red carnation, this honoring of our nation's physicians has been held annually since 1933.

ACTIVITIES

Waiting, waiting, waiting. . . You will be informed when the Seniors of Calvary can meet again.

Romans 8:25 But if we hope for what we do not yet have, we wait for it patiently.

I'm writing about all the things I ought to do before I die. It's my oughtobiography.

I turned the old church into a coffee shop. I call it Sacred Grounds.

When you're at the checkout line and they ask you if you found everything, say "Why, are you hiding stuff?"

"You know you've reached middle age when you're cautioned to slow down by your doctor instead of the police." Joan Rivers

Procrastination is the greatest labor-saving invention of all time.

"When I was a kid my parents moved a lot, but I always found them." Rodney Dangerfield

I recently asked a student where his homework was. He replied, "It's still in my pencil."

I want to be so full of Christ that if a mosquito bites me it flies away singing "There is power in the blood."

Speaking of singing, next month we'll have a sing-a-long in this newsletter, thanks to Linda Hickman for sending me some suggestions.

Meanwhile, continue to March to the beat of your own drum.

Sharon

Wilbanks