June Bible Story Theme: Helping, Healing, And Telling

Monthly Summary: In June, children explore Jesus' parables and learn how His teachings help us understand God's love. The month begins with The Prodigal Son (Luke 15:11–32), showing God's forgiveness and welcoming grace. Next, The Good Samaritan (Luke 10:25–37) teaches that God wants us to show compassion and care for everyone, even those who are different. The Mustard Seed (Matthew 13:31–32) reminds us that small acts of faith can grow into something mighty through God's power. Finally, The Lamp under a Bowl (Matthew 5:14–16) teaches that God wants His love to shine through us, so others can see Him. These stories help us understand God's love, forgiveness, and care for all people!
