Volunteer Team Member Covenant

This covenant is for all Ocoee Outreach volunteers.

As a member of our mission team, you will have a special opportunity to fulfill the Great Commission in a variety of ways: through going, praying, reaching and serving. To be a member of our mission team carries special responsibilities and expectations, as listed below:

A team member must...

- Be a maturing follower of Jesus Christ
- Be an active part of the local church
- Be a supportive team player and work toward building genuine biblical community amongst our team
- Be a person committed to fervent prayer for the people group we will serve, the missionaries with whom we will partner and the other members of our team
- Attend and participate faithfully in team preparation and training meetings
- Be responsible by turning in paperwork on time, showing up on time, and always staying in communication regarding the schedule and any issues that come up.
- Guard the health of the team and the mission experience by limiting behaviors that are either culturally insensitive, divisive, or call into question the integrity of our Christian witness, including (but not limited to) the use of alcohol or tobacco, or inappropriate sexual behavior.
- Be willing to avoid exclusive or romantic relationships with other team members, locals, or ministry staff
- Be prepared this summer to engage in major effort, long days of ministry, lots of walking, learning and respecting others, forgoing the comforts of home, possible excessive heat and working alongside other volunteers & staff from Ocoee Outreach.
- Be willing to comply with and support decisions made by our team leadership, our missionaries, the Ocoee Outreach staff and other ministry leaders with whom we partner.

I agree to the above, and I covenant to faithfully serve as a member of the Ocoee Outreach mission team in accordance with the heart and passion of Jesus Christ and His church.
