ALPHACRUCIS COLLEGE

WHAT IS AN LCC?

An LCC is a 'Local Church College' - in other words a 'pop up college' hosted in the church you attend.

Alphacrucis College (AC) provides you with access to fully accredited course content for a Certificate IV in Ministry (Leadership), through online training videos. AC marks all the assessment work, while someone from your church will mentor and help you apply your learning to your local church context. With accredited training, you will have AC's solid biblical & theological foundations which will complement the leadership development pathways in your church.

HOW DOES IT WORK?

Students gather once a week for 1-2 hours in whatever 'pop up college' setting their church chooses. This can be as casual as the coffee shop or lounge room, or as sophisticated as auditorium or training rooms. Students can watch content online at their leisure and meet together with a leader or mentor from their church to study and apply the material to their church culture and context. All courses include units that require practical ministry experience — so students get to serve and reflect on ministry areas in their local church.
