INTERNATIONAL DAY OF PRAYER
FOR PERSECUTED CHRISTIANS

After you watch Finding Life, visit SabinaMovie.com to learn about the upcoming release of the full-length feature film.

Greetings, dear friends,

On behalf of our persecuted Christian brothers and sisters around the world, thank you for your willingness to pray for them. May you experience the joy of the Lord in a special way as you pray and as you lead others in prayer.

When we extend our love and help to persecuted Christians, we receive an astonishing blessing in return. Persecuted believers provide us with examples of bold faith in the face of severe opposition. And as our faith and witness are increasingly challenged, we benefit from the true stories of these exemplary brothers and sisters.

From the earliest days of the church, as described in the Book of Acts, faithful Christians have valued serving Christ more than the comfort, safety and possessions they might gain in this world. In other words, they have chosen to lose their lives for Christ's sake. They have taken Christ at His word (see Matthew 10:39; 16:25) that those who choose to do so will find eternal life in Him — the way, and the truth, and the life.

We produced the enclosed video and other IDOP resources this year to help you make a special personal commitment. As you consider the example of Richard and Sabina Wurmbrand in the Finding Life video and pray for today's persecuted Christians, may you and your family, group, class or church be inspired to fully devote yourselves to Christ's service on the mission frontiers in your life.

WHAT IS ?

Join in prayer with Christians around the world this November on the International Day of Prayer for Persecuted Christians. This special day is set aside as a global prayer meeting on behalf of persecuted Christians who stand as a bold witness to Christ on the world's most dangerous mission frontiers.

The earnest prayers of the global body of believers testify to the unity found only in Christ. May God inspire us as we enter into fellowship with our persecuted Christian family.

For my house shall be called a house of prayer for all the peoples.

—Isaiah 56:7
