The Voice Of Crestwood United Methodist Church

In Luke 9: 28-36 the Bible tells us a story that we know as the transfiguration. Jesus and three of his disciples were on a mountain and Moses and Elijah appeared to Jesus and they spoke of his death. Then the voice of God spoke and said, "This is my Son, whom I have chosen; listen to him".

During the season of Lent, I will be preaching, teaching and sending out daily emails based on a series titled, "Listen to Him". The series will provide 40 steps to lean in and listen to Jesus. It is listening to Jesus where we discover our lives transformed and our worst days breaking forth into our best life.

Three ways you can participate in this series are: attend Sunday morning worship during the month of March, attend a class on Wednesday nights at 6:15 in the CLC from March and read a daily email with a devotion for the day. Please contact the office if we do not have your email address.

The season of Lent is one of the most powerful times of the year and I want you and me to focus on listening to Jesus. Join me as we once again approach Easter morning when He is risen. He has risen indeed!

From the Church Office

Our office staff is supplemented by volunteers to help greet office visitors, answer the phone, assist with paper work and other tasks. Volunteers typically commit to a few hours in the morning or afternoon to work with Karen, Kim and Delores. We currently have needs for the morning or afternoon on Wednesday, Thursday morning and Friday afternoon. Friday afternoon is our biggest need as Karen runs the bulletins on Fridays and having someone to help with the phones is of great assistance. You can call the church office at 241-8984 or contact Karen Grimes at kgrimes@crestwoodmethodist.com.

Mission & Ministry at CUMC

Greetings from the Missions and Ministries team. For those who do not know who is on the Missions team yet, let me introduce them: Mike and Christy Baker (chairs), Rick and Diana Calvert, Bobbie Stoess, Steve Kidwell, Eric Mohn and Jeff Moody. Stop and ask them how you can get involved in CUMC Missions.

Our Goal is simple. To Educate and Engage CUMC members to "...Therefore go and make disciples of all nations." Matthew 28:19

Speaking of going to all nations, our Costa Rica Team of 20 went to the Methodist Rural Center in Quesada, Costa Rica. The team was led by our own Jim Powell. This was the first time we took our own team from CUMC. Historically we went with the Ashland UMC team. Jim Powell and Christy Baker, along with several personal testimonies from those on the team, spoke at our Wednesday night GAFFA and the theme seemed to be fluidity. They started with their plan and God took over as soon as they left for Costa Rica. While their "best laid plans" changed, their expectations exceeded anything they thought they would experience. God used their skills and talents to his glory. They laid block, installed arcs for a roof and connected to the men, women and children there with VBS, hugs, healing, and evangelizing. Their stories were powerful and each person that spoke said that their goals when leaving turned out completely different from when they arrived. They received as many blessings as they gave. If anyone is interested in going next year there is a sign up sheet in the Narthex.

Our Laundry Love Ministry happened on Saturday, February 8th. Laundry Love is part of the South Oldham Inter Church Council mission. It was started in the summer of 2018 here in our community. It is part of a national program. Currently Crestwood Methodist, Crestwood Christian, Pewee Valley Presbyterian, St. Al's Catholic Church and St. James Episcopal churches are part of Laundry Love. Each Church takes the second Saturday of the month twice a year and goes to the Crestwood Coin Laundry from 8:45 AM-11:15AM. Our Mary Louise Guild has been supporting the project and having people come help. Bobbie Stoess And Georgiana Doty spearhead Laundry Love for our church. Each church brings tide pods, fabric softener sheets, $500 in quarters and debit cards. Snacks, coloring books and crayons are also provided for the children. People in need know to come the second Saturday for Laundry Love. We have money for the washers and dryers. They load their laundry and we put in pods and quarters. We keep track of those we help each month with first names and how many loads we do. They move their clothes to the dryers and we put in quarters and fabric softener sheets. We are being the hands and feet of Jesus. The families are so appreciative.

Last Saturday when we arrived at 8:30 to set up on a cold snowy morning the laundromat was filled with families. All the washers were ready for us to begin at nine. A young man about 14 came in with his entire family's laundry. He was panicked because there were no empty washers and he had no money. We told him to sit up front and he would get the first 4 washers on the front row when they became empty. He was still concerned when his clothes were in the washers. We assured him we would stay until his laundry was dry and we did. He was so very thankful. We also helped a woman in labor trying to get her laundry done before she had to go to the hospital! We did 80 loads of laundry from 9-11 and spent $455. It was a wonderful day for Laundry Love.

If you would like to get involved with Laundry Love or help financially, please contact Bobbie Stoess at 314-1088.

The Goshorn's are Missionaries in Peru that CUMC supports. They have recently published a YouTube Video of their first five years in Peru and we wanted to pass it along. Link to YouTube Video: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=aumXdqUil2Y>

They are coming to speak at GAFFA on Wednesday February 26th at 5:55. They will give us a brief 15 minute talk about their mission before our Ash Wednesday service. Please welcome the Goshorn's during their visit. In addition, Covenant United Methodist church does frequent mission trips to Peru in support of the Goshorn's in case you are interested.

Worship Corner

Beginning in March, once monthly in the 9:01 service there will be a Moment of Sharing. This is simply a time when you can briefly share your testimony, which may include personal witness to God's grace or accounts of what God is doing or has done in your life.

HELPFUL HINTS

- Pray before you write out and share your story.
- Write the way you speak.
- Don't be overly negative or positive. Be honest.
- Don't criticize or name any church, denomination, organization, etc.

If you'd like to tell your story on a Sunday in May at the 9:01 service, please contact valerie@crestwoodmethodist.com call or text 502-225-6385. Not comfortable speaking in front of others? How about recording a short video on a smart phone? We'll help you!

SEVEN DIFFERENCES BETWEEN YOUR CHURCH AND A CAFETERIA

By Thom S. Rainer

I have pretty clear memories of my first visit to a cafeteria. I was five years old, and my parents wanted our family to experience a Morrison's Cafeteria in Montgomery, Alabama.

It was amazing. I saw untold numbers of dishes of meats, vegetables, salads, fruits and, of course, desserts. I had never seen anything like it. Mom and Dad had already given my brother and me strict instructions on how much we could choose. But, for a small-town kid who had never seen such a feast, I was amazed.

The concept was basic. If you paid your money, you could choose whatever you wanted. Your preferences were paramount. It was all about you.

It sounds like some churches we know.

Though we don't have the numbers of cafeterias we once had, the lessons are instructive. Simply stated, your church is not a cafeteria. Here are seven differences.

1. In a cafeteria, you pay for your preferences. In a church, you should give abundantly and joyfully without expecting anything in return. If you ever hear someone say, "We pay the bills in this church," you know they act like the church is a cafeteria.

2. In a cafeteria, the focus is on you. In a church, the focus should be on God first and then others. If you ever hear someone say, "I'm not getting fed in this church," you know they act like the church is a cafeteria.

3. In a cafeteria, you demand to have things your way. In a church, you should sacrifice your own needs for others. If you ever hear someone say, "I want the order of service to be like it's always been," you know they act like the church is a cafeteria.

4. In a cafeteria, the business must continue to make things more appealing and attractive for you to return. In a church, you should not expect to be entertained to get you to come back. If you ever hear someone say, "I'm going to a church where the music is more exciting," you know they act like the church is a cafeteria.

5. In a cafeteria, if the customer does not get his or her way, the business must make every effort to address and remedy his or her complaint. In a church, we should be so busy doing for others and serving Christ that we don't have time or the desire to whine or complain. If you ever hear someone say, "People are saying . . .", you know they act like the church is a cafeteria.

6. In a cafeteria, you have a full staff serving you behind the glass partitions, indulging your every desire. In a church, you should not expect the staff to do all or most of the ministry or service; instead, the members are to do the work of ministry. If you ever hear someone saying, "Pastor, you should . . .", you know they act like the church is a cafeteria.

7. In a cafeteria, you will likely complain to others in person or on social media if you are not fully satisfied. In a church, you should not have a gossiping or complaining spirit; instead, you should be building others up. If you ever see someone complain about their church on social media, you know they act like the church is a cafeteria.

Cafeterias were fun when I was a kid. But Morrison's went out of business and the pieces were picked up by Piccadilly Cafeterias. And Piccadilly declared bankruptcy in 2012.

The big cafeteria chains have not fared well. And neither will churches if they keep acting like cafeterias.

Discipleship—Know, Show, Grow—Go

As we at CUMC ask ourselves how we might become better disciples of Jesus, a good place to look for teaching & example is found in The Book of Acts. Acts is an important book for us today because it confirms the power of the Holy Spirit, which transformed the believers' lives, is the same power that can transform our lives today!

The story of Stephen is about an "ordinary" man full of faith, full of the Holy Spirit and wisdom, full of God's grace and power. (Acts 6:3 - 7:60)

I read about Stephen, who was not one of The Twelve. He was just a willing and committed servant, who day by day, went about distributing food to those in need. He applied the truth and faith and grace that the Spirit supplied. As I look at the model of Stephen, I want that - to know God better and to serve Him each, every ordinary day, whether I'm involved in a big project in the workplace or at home with my family.

Think about a person who makes you want to know God better. What are the qualities you see in that person? Why are you are encouraged by them to want to know God better? And, what about those eyes who are watching you? Are we showing any Christ-like compassion or characteristic of lasting value?

Ask God to fill you with His Holy Spirit. Ask Him to help you to faithfully, boldly and sensitively proclaim and live out truth. Our usefulness in His service will be maximized as we operate in the Spirit's power.

--excerpts from Acts - Seeing God's Power in Action by Phyllis LePeau.

Attention fellow CUMC Campers!

Interested in getting together for a weekend? No itinerary, no agenda...just get together and enjoy the outdoors and each other. We are thinking we may have a potluck/party on Saturday around 5 or 5:30 for our own little Derby celebration.

Friday May 1- Sunday May 3 at Charlestown State Park, Indiana (Only about 30 minutes away)

The park has creek fishing, trails, and historical interest (site of Rose Island Park-destroyed in the 1937 flood but now has a trail thorough it to help learn all about this historical landmark). Electric at the site. You fill your tanks with water as you come into the park. There are water spigots in the camping areas. Scott and Laurel Crimm are the 'organizers'. We will be at site 84.

Here is the link to make your own reservations :<https://indianastateparks.reserveamerica.com/welcome.do?tti=home> Email Laurel at laurelcrimm@gmail.com or text me at (502)387-3468 to let us know you are coming and we'll be in touch closer to the date. Also, if you have questions, just text or email and I'll get in touch with you....or catch us at church.

Easter Sunrise Service

You are invited to the Community Easter Sunrise Service
On Sunday April 12 7:00AM

Sponsored by the South Oldham Inter Church Council
Regular Services at Crestwood UMC at 9:01AM & 11:00AM

Women's Sewing Ministry

We are making small quilts for infants and children at Norton's Children's Hospital. We are making little dresses for orphan girls in Africa so the girls can attend school. If you would like to donate to the little dress project, we could use dress fabric, bias tape and 1/4" elastic.

Since we began in April of 2001, in the double room of the education building on Monday nights, we have made and donated 2,089 hand made items to women, children and families who have suffered tragic losses in their lives. We have not asked for money from the United Methodist Women nor the Church. Everything has been donated.

Thank you for your generous support and prayers.

Mountain Mission

The Mountain Mission truck will be here March 16th.

In 2019, Mountain Mission served 220 residents of eastern Kentucky at 8 Opportunity Stores. In addition, they have 65 employees.

Emergency Needs: Men's shoes, Men's & Children's summer and winter clothes, women's purses, plus-sized clothing, and boots, shoes, socks and underwear for all ages.

Please leave your donations, in boxes if possible, in the enclosed porch of the Kilgus House. The Kilgus House is located across the street from the parsonage. The key to the porch can be picked up in the church office. Thank you for your support of Mountain Mission.

Dartball—CHAMPS!

It's the middle of February and with it comes the end of the 2019 season of the Oldham County Church Dartball League. Crestwood UMC has been a long time member of this great Christian outreach program for Oldham County churches. It is with great pleasure and pride, as the team manager, that I announce your CUMC team took second place for the 2019 season with a record of 31 wins and 14 losses. It is with greater pleasure that I announce that your team won the 2019 Post Season Tournament Championship against Ashland Oldham County Baptist. With a score of 2 wins and 1 loss. CUMC was truly represented in a winning fashion throughout Oldham County. A few of the outstanding team leaders for the season were: Brandon Potts with a .413 batting average, Mike Potts with 41 runs batted in, and Chet Rozak with 27 home runs!

Thank you to all,

Jerry Burch, Team Manager

Our New Members—The Anderson's

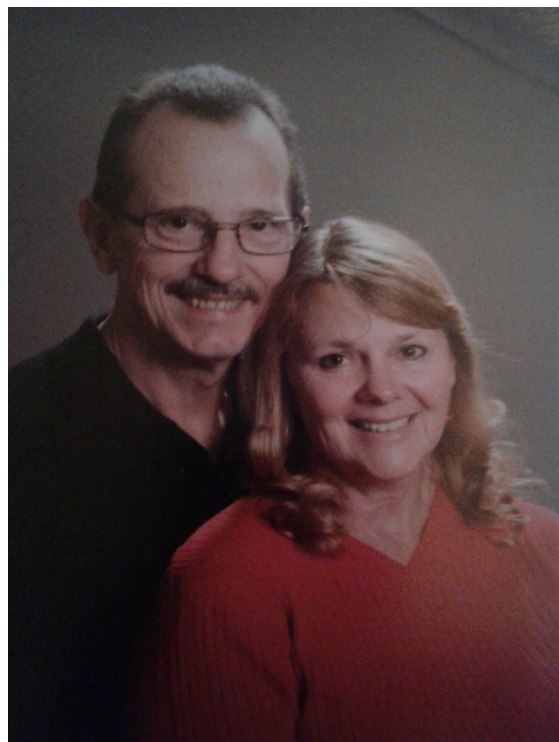

As you read these words about Steve and Marcie Anderson you may very well find a few things that make you want to get better acquainted. For instance if you have an interest in Michigan, you may be glad to know that they both were born and raised in Muskegon. And that they lived in Muskegon until moving to Kentucky in 1980. Or if you live in the Floydensburg community, you will now be glad to claim them as a neighbor.

The Anderson's have three adult daughters: Angella, Jessica and Desiree. These gals have blessed Marcie and Steve with five grandchildren.

For thirty-three years the Anderson family had been active members of Crestwood Baptist Church. Then more recently they began searching for a change, and it was Scott and Laura Crimm who invited them to visit Crestwood Methodist. They immediately fell in love with the warmth of the congregation and were very impressed with all the outreach opportunities available.

Marcie and Steve officially became members of our church family here at CUMC on January 26, 2020.

This delightful couple are lovers of the great outdoors. They particularly enjoy camping, hiking as well as kayaking or canoeing. Steve and Marcie have been together for 43 years, and they have gone through many trials that have brought them closer to the Lord. They can honestly say that they are thankful to have been rescued by Jesus many years ago. Plus, they are glad to share with others their story of addiction and how they found help. Phone — Steve: 502-262-0552 and Marcie: 502-381-8050 .

Triple L—Senior Ministry

Triple L will be meeting Friday March 27th from 11:30-1pm. Location will be announced later.
