Things to Remember

Safety Measures

- Masks are required before and after service, and during singing.
- Anyone who is in a high-risk category because of age or underlying health issues is strongly encouraged to continue participating in our online service.
- Please, practice safe social distancing and refrain from any physical contact with people outside of your household.
- You can bring your own communion supplies, but we will also have prepackaged communion sets available.

Location and Seating

- We will gather in the Modular Building parking lot.
- Please bring your own lawn chairs, folding chairs, or something to sit on.
- Households should set up at least six feet from other households
- Please, do not park in the Modular Building parking lot.
- Service will begin at 8:30 am, please arrive early enough to set up before we begin.

Restrooms and Building Access

- Restrooms are located in the Modular Building. Please only use if absolutely necessary.
- Access to the main building and areas of the Modular Building, excluding the restrooms, is restricted.
- Water bottles will be available on tables in our seating area.

Weather

- If it rains on Sunday morning, we will postpone our parking lot service until next week.
- We will try to send a text to the congregation regarding cancellation.
