

A man with a beard and short dark hair, wearing a dark blue long-sleeved shirt, is seated in a theater. He is smiling and looking towards the right. His right arm is resting on the back of the seat in front of him. The background is filled with other audience members, mostly blurred, sitting in rows of red seats. The lighting is warm and focused on the man.

What is baptism all about?

⁴ There is one body and one Spirit—just as you were called to the one hope that belongs to your call—⁵ one Lord, one faith, one baptism,⁶ one God and Father of all, who is over all and through all and in all.

Ephesians 4:4–6

ESV

In spite of our differences, every Christian has baptism in common.

Are you saying I have to be baptized to be a Christian?

What shall we say then? Are we to continue in sin that grace may abound? ² By no means! How can we who died to sin still live in it?

Romans 6:1–2

ESV

³ Do you not know that all of us who have been baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death? ⁴ We were buried therefore with him by baptism into death, in order that, just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, we too might walk in newness of life.

Romans 6:3–4

ESV

⁵ For if we have been united with him in a death like his, we shall certainly be united with him in a resurrection like his. ⁶ We know that our old self was crucified with him in order that the body of sin might be brought to nothing, so that we would no longer be enslaved to sin.

Romans 6:5–6

ESV

⁷ For one who has died has been set free from sin.

Romans 6:7

ESV

³ Do you not know that all of us who have been baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death? ⁴ We were buried therefore with him by baptism into death, in order that, just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, we too might walk in newness of life.

Romans 6:3–4

ESV

⁸ Now if we have died with Christ, we believe that we will also live with him. ⁹ We know that Christ, being raised from the dead, will never die again; death no longer has dominion over him.

Romans 6:8–9

ESV

All Christians can draw on our shared experience of baptism as the moment we chose to be SEPARATED from SIN
and UNITED with JESUS.
