Connections for the Journey...

Pastor Phil

Lenore and I just returned from a trip to Dominica, a small Caribbean island with about 70,000 residents. I did some research. The expected average annual income for 2024, is $11,000. Needless to say, there is very little tourism and development in Dominica, but it's coming.

I read that not only is it known for being a very friendly island, it is also very safe. We stopped to pick up hitch hikers a variety of times.

One night, Lenore and I were eating at a restaurant, and another English-speaking couple arrived. We hit it off. We talked across the table for the whole meal... actually OUR whole meal. They never received their food after waiting 45 minutes. They told the bartender that they were going to take their meal home instead of eating it there. They then asked us if we wanted to come back to where they were staying. I didn't hesitate. What a great opportunity! When we were leaving, as a joke, I texted my daughters and said that we met these two strangers when we went out to eat, and they asked us to go back to their home with them... if we never see you again, we love you!

Although I DID text that, I DIDN'T have that feeling at all. I felt safe. I felt safe the whole time I was on the island.

Safe spaces allow us to be who we are. Safe spaces allow us to express ourselves. Safe spaces give us the freedom to explore.

Our church will continue to work at being a safe space. It is a never-ending project. It takes all of us to create an atmosphere where people are able to express their beliefs and faith, regardless if it agrees with our own. A safe church space is integral for the development of beliefs.

As a pastor, I don't want you to have my beliefs, nor do I want you to have the Lutheran church's beliefs. I want you to do the difficult work of self-discovery. Hopefully, my beliefs will help you. Hopefully, the beliefs and teachings of the Lutheran church, will help you. Hopefully, you will struggle with the teachings of Jesus on this thing we call "a journey of faith".

Not only did we have a great night with Nate and Raffaella, all four of us created a safe space to talk and discuss... and boy did we ever! I could have stayed all night. But the content of our discussion won't be revealed this Lenten season. You will have to wait till Easter.

Know God loves you!

Pastor Phil

Council Corner

Council Corner

We had our organizational meeting last week, welcoming our new council members – Mandy Mayer, Kelly Meyer, and Sam Raup.

We elected officers – President, Brenda Tarulli; Vice President, Ed Alosi; Treasurer, Mark Wilten; and Recording Secretary, Kelly Meyer.

We have a good mix of talents and experience on the council. We have a group willing to share their perspectives to help guide the church moving forward.

The next Church Council Meeting will be held on March 19th.
All are welcome.

Cultivating Generosity

Throughout the fall our congregations are often focused on stewardship and gratitude for the generosity of members. Folks provide stewardship talks, members complete commitment cards, and sermons are proclaimed to encourage generosity of time, talent and finances. But did you know that our ELCA Congregation and Synod Support Team offers training and recommendations on cultivating generosity?

This past fall, in partnership with the Lake Institute on Faith and Giving, stewardship leaders from eight congregations, representing four ELCA synods, came together for a training series called "Cultivating Generous Congregations" (CGC). Over seven weeks leaders from these eight congregations gathered online as a cohort with the Lake Institute's trained faculty and each other. Cultivating Generous Congregations maps the new landscape of religious giving and provides congregational teams with tools to build a culture of generosity unique to each congregation's needs, challenges, and opportunities. CGC explores theology, the role of adaptive leadership, fiscal transparency, and the importance of giver care, with action steps to impact the exploration of generosity and energize congregational generosity to take the significant and necessary steps to creating lasting cultural change.

Following the final session, the eight congregations received a year of access to the Lake Institute's numerous stewardship resources, as well as optional coaching to assist in the implementation of these practices. Mission Support funds the opportunity for congregations and leaders to learn from stewardship experts and one another and to grow together so that their local mission, and how God is growing generosity, can be told in more effective ways in today's culture.

In December, 2019 I had a slip and fall on ice and broke my leg, etc. etc. etc. When Enid came to visit she brought me a blue prayer shawl. This afternoon, after shoveling the snow for the 5th time today (2/17/24) with the 11.8 inches of snow we got overnight, I went and wrapped myself in this prayer shawl and immediately felt the comfort it gives me. I have been using this shawl for warmth and comfort since January, 2020 and I would really like to thank the person who knitted it, and to let her know her beautiful work is really appreciated.

BEAR CREEK CAMP - SUMMER 2024

Try Out Bear Creek Camp This Summer!

Applications are open for Bear Creek Camp! At Christ Lutheran, that means scholarship time. Every student who asks gets $100 of their tuition paid for by Christ Lutheran. Confirmation students get even more!

Why go to Bear Creek Camp? More reasons than I can list. Ask Pastor Phil, A/V Whizz Mark Stana, or Faith Formation Team Leader Bre Barket what Bear Creek Camp means to them. It's not just a place to be a kid; it's a place to grow up.

If you're still skeptical, here's five reasons why Bear Creek Camp is worth a visit this summer:

Whitewater Rafting – See what you're made of on the Susquehanna River!

High Ropes and Low Ropes – The star attraction for most of our attendees.

New Friends – Campers come from all over Northeast Pennsylvania. Imagine meeting someone from Tunkhannock!

Toilets – There was a time when Bear Creek was plumbing-free! Sadly, the restrooms have all been upgraded so you can barely even tell you're camping...

Theology To Be Sure Of – Bear Creek is at the cutting edge of Lutheran theology. Each summer they create a space where everyone knows they are loved by God, no matter who they are.
