Connections for the Journey...

Pastor Phil

What type of faith community are you looking for?

This happens to be one of my favorite questions I ask to our New Comers when I sit down and talk to prospective members. I phrase it a bit differently, "What are you looking for in a church?"

This Summer Sabbatical has allowed me to visit a variety of churches. I am amazed at my judgements about a church, from the smell, appearance, and conversations I overhear before worship even starts. Judgements. What is the bulletin like, are people friendly, do they recognize me as visitor, what is the age of the congregation, any kids around? So many things go through my mind as I sit trying to prepare for worship.

I realize I can overlook lots of things on my first visit to a church, if they have a great Coffee Hour... only joking! If they have friendly people who not only say "Hi", but take the next step, "Are you new here?", "Where are you from?", "How did you hear about our church", "Are you able to stay for coffee hour?".

I can sense, and I'm sure you can to, a community that is warm and welcoming. The one I have attended a few times is not even Lutheran, but they have a warmth and spirit that is attractive.

Let me be clear, it's not the pastor who is warm and spiritual, it's the people. It's the people who take the initiative to welcome, invite, and converse. I've yet to talk to the pastor!

So, think about this and your role here at Christ Lutheran. You may not be into committee meetings, or baking goodies for coffee hour, but I hope you challenge yourself not only to say "hi" to all your friends, but also to seek out someone you don't know, or someone you have never seen, and take the risk to start a conversation.

I can tell you why some churches are dying. The members are not versed in hospitality and welcome.

Challenge yourself to get out of your comfort zone. It just might change someone's life. And the life it might change just might be your own.

Know God loves you!
Pastor Phil

NORTHEASTERN PENNSYLVANIA SYNOD MONTHLY NEWSLETTER

Spirit-Led Summers at Bear Creek Camp

Written by: Stacey Burke, Communications and BCC NEPA Synod Representative

"I'm always struck by the simple but profound technologies that camp employs to build healthy, loving, Christ-centered community: silly songs and deep conversations, skits and games, shared meals and rituals." These words from Pastor Inge Williams of Friedens Lutheran in Shartlesville, a 2025 summer chaplain at Bear Creek Camp, reflect the deep joy and quiet transformation that unfold in the woods each season.

All Together was the theme this summer, focusing on growing stronger through love and service, grace-filled faith, and belonging and community. Pastor Inge witnessed this connection firsthand early in the summer when she served as one of the camp chaplains during Family Camp. Pastor Inge shared, "On one of the first nights, I saw one of the former youth synod council representatives, now serving as a counselor this summer, give a high five to a toddler from Ireland who was running all over the field during a kickball game. The kindness and connection across ages, and even international borders, really exemplified what Family Camp is about."

While chapel time and worship services are typically led by the young adult summer staff, camp chaplains provide spiritual support throughout the week, leading devotions and Bible studies for campers and staff. They offer encouragement, listening ears, and join in the fun that camp has to offer. Throughout the summer, three Northeastern PA Synod pastors brought their time, energy, and Spirit-led presence to Bear Creek Camp as chaplains. Pastor Inge Williams and Pastor Jennifer Heaver of Star of Bethlehem Lutheran Church served during Family Camp, while Pastor Liz Koerner of St. John Lutheran in Stroudsburg closed out the season as chaplain during the final week.

The partnership with Bear Creek Camp, shared with the Southeastern PA Synod, is especially meaningful to our synod, as the values of camp and synod closely align. Both are deeply committed to building relationships and belonging across congregations, generations, and diverse communities. As synod, we continue to search for ways to raise leaders who serve with compassion, creativity, and courage in the church and the world, which is why our partnership with Bear Creek Camp is so important. It is prioritizing youth and allowing them space to search for ways to serve others as a natural response to God's love.

Serving others was the theme of one of Pastor Liz's Bible studies during her week as chaplain. When she met with the Junior campers (grades 2-4), she asked how they might take the ways they serve others at camp and apply them at home and in their school communities. Helping others at camp can seem second nature, especially after a full week of being together. However, campers are not only learning how to be kind to one another. They are learning life skills that will stay with them long after the week ends.

Throughout the week, they are learning how to be confident and independent through overnight tent camping experiences. They are learning about teamwork and communication as they encourage each other on high rope activities. They grow spiritually through the guidance of our chaplains, who are a daily presence within the camp schedule and help shape campers' understanding of faith and their connection to God.

We are extremely grateful for the passion and dedication of Pastor Inge, Pastor Jennifer, and Pastor Liz, who devoted their time this past summer, and for the ongoing work of Bear Creek Camp as it builds inclusive community, nurtures faith, and develops leaders who carry their experiences into the world with empathy, joy, and purpose. This certainly could not be accomplished without the hardworking, compassionate summer staff and the leadership of Executive Director Collin Grooms, Program Director Kallie Handlong, and all the other camp leaders who contribute and put youth first.

Camp doesn't end when the summer does. In addition to summer camp, Bear Creek Camp offers retreats and camps outside of the summer timeframe including the upcoming Labor Day Family Camp, Fall Women's Retreat, and Winter Camp. The camp is also open to hosting congregations, committees, or organizational retreats through their facility rentals. All this information and more can be found at bearcreekcamp.org. All together, Bear Creek Camp and our synod continue to walk hand in hand, creating space for love, service, and faith to flourish in every season.

DID YOU KNOW that your Mission Support helps fund areas of the synod like this one and many other important initiatives? Your contributions are making a significant impact and helping others grow in faith, supporting the synod's lanes of Growing Young, Gaining Strength, and Going Beyond Death to Life, along with the directions of loving like Jesus, healing like Jesus, and engaging like Jesus. Hellertown Community Day Dimmick Park August 16th 2025

Community Day was held on Saturday, August 16 in Dimmick Park in Hellertown. The weather was sunny and warm and there was a good turnout of individuals and families. There are numerous churches among the booths. Christ Lutheran Church stood out with its welcoming atmosphere, friendly volunteers, free raffles, and Children's Learning Center attractions for kids.

Special thanks to everyone who supported Christ Lutheran at Community Day:

Elaine Snyder; Teresa Mackey; Peg and Tim McCoy; Regina Sands-Corl; Fran Corl; Mary Barwick; Rachel Whitesell; Lisa Weingartner; Brad Wagner; Ken Doremus; Cheryl Lawler; Carol Dishmon; Marie Frey; Nancy DeVogel; Ed Alosi for meeting and greeting at our booth.

Teresa Mackey for preparing signage of the church calendar with dates and times of all programs and activities.

Nancy DeVogel for preparing a special flyer about the church's Yoga, Chair Yoga, and Reiki ministries.

Enid Rank for setting up the volunteer booth assignments.

Barry Stauffer for preparing, staging, and managing all the equipment and supplies for the church and learning center booths.

Kevin Gough for up the equipment and supplies from the church, setting up the booth, and lending his truck to return items to the church.

Josh Gulotta and Ken Doremus for assisting with the teardown and returning items to the church.

Josh Gulotta for his presence at the entire Community Day, from set-up to teardown.

Christ Lutheran is always looking for ways to create more differentiation, engagement, and impact at Community Day. If you have any ideas or suggestions for next year, please send an email to the Church Office, and Barry will route it to the appropriate person or team.

With appreciation,

Dave Willard for the Connections with the Community Team

Here is an excerpt from One5c, a newsletter chock full of information and articles on a wide variety of topics and issues that are relevant to our environment and how we affect it.

What can Americans do to halt the desecration of the rainforest from farming and development? This eco-system constitutes the 'lungs of the world,' and is a crucial carbon sink. —Judith H.

This is one area where we can put our purchasing power as consumers to work by not supporting businesses and industries that profit from deforestation. The top three drivers of tropical rainforest loss are the production of beef, oil-producing plants, and paper- and wood-based products. Beef cattle alone are responsible for 41%, which is twice the deforestation rate of the number two contributor, oil-producing plants, which account for about 18%.

We're less dogged about avoiding things like palm oil than we are about putting down the burgers, though. That's because replacing palm oil—which is cheap, versatile, and dense—with a combo of the three top oil alternatives would put an additional land area the size of Spain at risk. Demand for palm oil is going to continue to grow, but this is a conversation about progress as opposed to perfection. Environmental groups and companies have made steps towards codifying what responsible palm-oil production looks like (you can learn how to spot products that use these practices here), whereas there's no such thing as "green" beef.

The best way to address tree-felling for paper and wood is also fairly straightforward. Whenever possible, opt for products made from recycled materials over virgin stock. (It's why our toilet paper recommendation is recycled.) Around 68% of paper in the U.S. finds a second life. Rapidly growing crops like bamboo might seem like a panacea here, but only if you know what to look for. Demand for the wood-y grass has jumped so much that some farmers clear forests to grow it or create monocultures, so look for products bearing a Forest Stewardship Council certification to make certain proper steps have been taken when sourcing materials.

Beyond those everyday actions, you can also stay involved with advocacy organizations focused on stemming deforestation. The Rainforest Action Network is a good place to start; they organize campaigns telling brands and leaders to clean up their acts.

Civic Theatre 514

(Small theatre across from main Civic Theatre building)

Wickedly funny and surprisingly profound, Stephen Karam's Speech & Debate is a sharp, smart comedy that dives headfirst into the awkward, angsty world of adolescence—and the fierce need to be heard. When three misfit teens in Salem, Oregon, discover a scandal involving one of their teachers, they form an unlikely alliance through their school's Speech & Debate Team. What starts as a mission for justice quickly spirals into a wild, witty rollercoaster of secrets, identity, and the power of speaking your truth. With razor-sharp dialogue and a deeply human heart, Speech & Debate is a bold, timely play that's as hilarious as it is heartfelt. Come see why Stephen Karam is one of the most exciting voices in American theater—this is one debate you won't want to miss!

Get Your Bible Here!

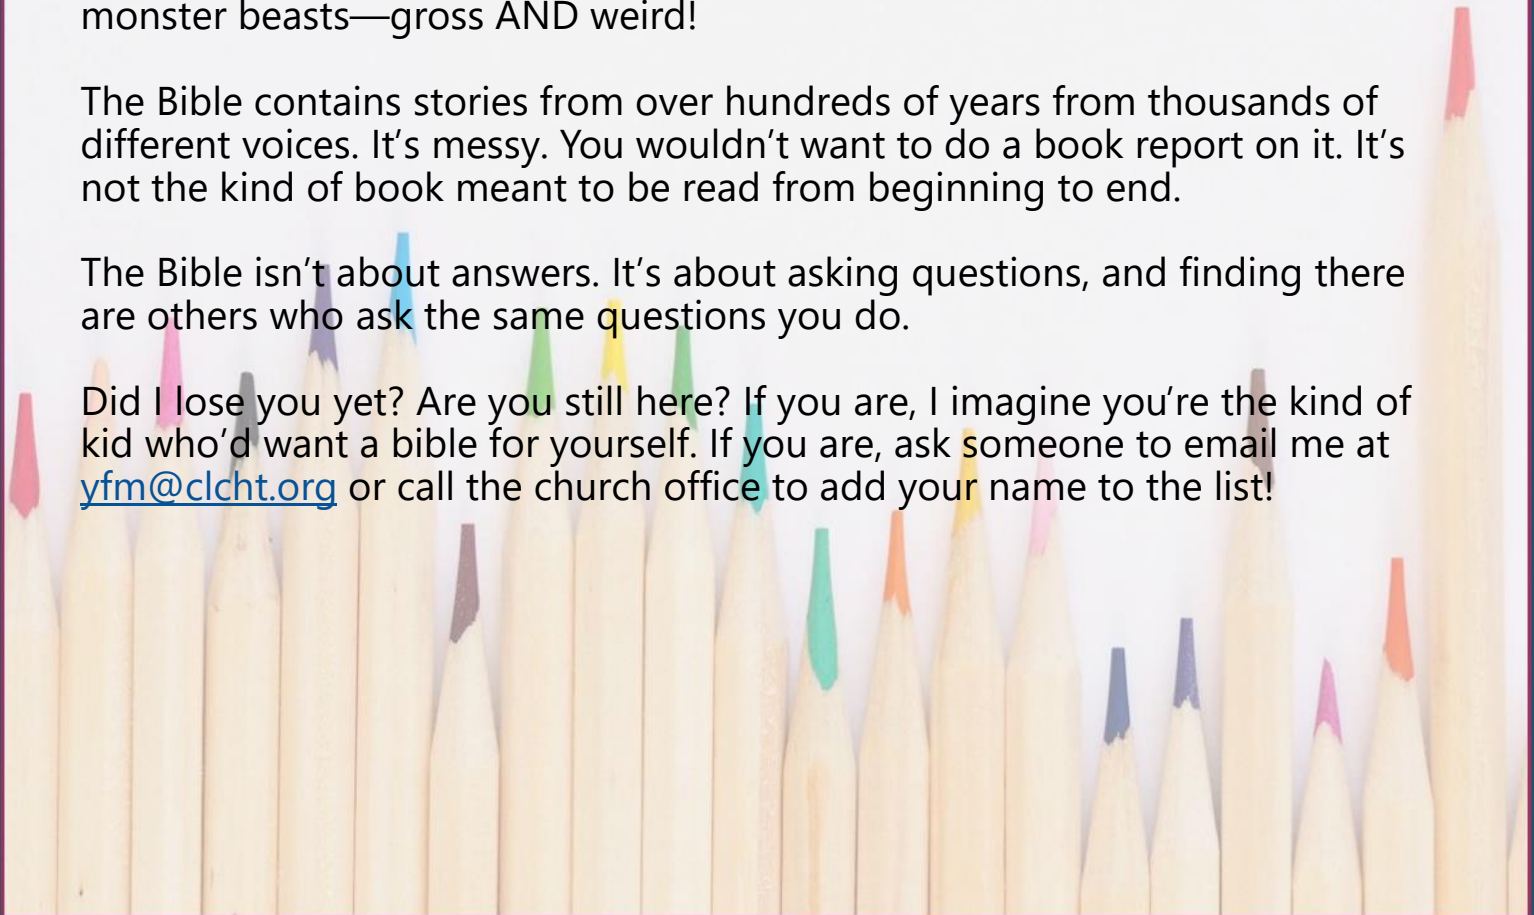

September 28th is Bible Sunday, the day when Christ Lutheran gifts Bibles to our Third and Fourth Graders.

If the Bible wasn't the Bible, there's no way grownups would let you kids read it. There are stories in the Bible that would knock your socks off! There's a man who kills a thousand people with a jawbone of a donkey—gross! There's a bear that attacks a bunch of kids for calling someone bald—weird! And the angels in the Bible aren't pretty winged humans in robes; they're terrifying monster beasts—gross AND weird!

The Bible contains stories from over hundreds of years from thousands of different voices. It's messy. You wouldn't want to do a book report on it. It's not the kind of book meant to be read from beginning to end.

The Bible isn't about answers. It's about asking questions, and finding there are others who ask the same questions you do.

Did I lose you yet? Are you still here? If you are, I imagine you're the kind of kid who'd want a bible for yourself. If you are, ask someone to email me at yfm@clcht.org or call the church office to add your name to the list!
