

SHATTERPROOF

Groups Discussion Guide – November 15, 2020

---

When Christ is in you, you have the power, potential, and, most importantly, the desire to turn away from sin and run in the other direction. That's the foundation of a shatterproof faith. So it's time to take a serious examination of yourself—to see if your faith can be trusted when you need it the most.

TALK ABOUT IT

1. Who do you know that has a shatterproof faith? What characteristics do they have? How do they handle hard situations that come their way?
2. Read 2 Corinthians 12:20-21. What is your reaction to sin? Is it something you want to change when confronted with it? Or do you tend to brush it off or ignore it?
3. Read 1 Corinthians 10:13. How quickly do you tend to see the warning signs in the moments leading up to sin? Remember, God will always provide a way out of your temptation.
4. In what areas of your life do you feel weak or full of apprehension? How can you trust in God's power in those situations?

ACT ON IT

Commit to asking yourself these three questions on a regular basis in order to develop a shatterproof faith: What is your reaction to sin? How quickly do you see the warning signs? When you feel weak, do you trust in God's power?

MEMORIZE IT

Examine yourselves to see if your faith is genuine. Test yourselves.
(2 Corinthians 13:5)
