DISCUSS IT

1. What memories come to mind when you think about your very first job and your first paycheck?

- How did your early experiences with money shape your current attitudes toward finances?

2. What does the phrase “money is a great servant but a horrible master” mean to you?

- In what ways do you see money shaping your heart, intentionally or unintentionally?

3. What part of Jesus’ teaching in Luke 12 about greed stood out to you?

- Luke 12:34 “Wherever your treasure is, there the desires of your heart will also be.” How do you identify this verse playing out in your life?

4. What money worries do you struggle with, and how might inviting God into those worries help?

- How can we avoid making money our “functional savior,” leaning on it instead of God?

5. Which of the five principles do you feel God asking you to focus on this season? And how might trusting Him there open up growth in other parts of your life?

- Earn it honestly
- Save it gradually
- Give it generously
- Spend it wisely
- Enjoy it carefully

RESPOND TO IT

What have you learned about God from His Word? How is He asking you to apply it to your life? When will you apply?
