Faith At Home Play Card

1 Thessalonians Chapter 3

Best Use:

To act as a companion to the REAP Bible reading plan for the book of 1 Thessalonians chapter 3.

Purpose:

Assists parents in their call to fulfill their responsibility as the primary faith shaper in their child's life. Guides families to have fun and engaging faith conversations in their home.

Advanced Preparation:

Have the following supplies ready for Family Night.

- About ten toy blocks or wood pieces of various lengths
- A coffee table or flat surface shorter than the combined length of the blocks or wood pieces
- A marker
- A Bible

Play Action:

Follow these steps to serve up a great experience.

1. Assemble the blocks from largest to smallest or have the child help you cut the wood into pieces of various lengths.
2. Have a child write one of the following words on each of the longer pieces of wood representing the “Should Do” activities in his or her day: Sleep, Eat, School, Bathe, Chores, Read, Practice, etc.
3. Now have them write one of the following “Could Do” words on each of the shorter pieces of wood: Television, Wii, Play with Friends, Eat Ice Cream, etc.
4. Invite the kids to your “24 Hour Table” or flat surface. (Be sure the length of the surface is shorter than the combined length of the wood blocks.)
5. Invite each child to design his or her ideal day by selecting the wood blocks that represent what they would like to do most and placing them end-to-end on the surface until they run out of table. The child will quickly discover that there is not enough room on the table for several of the “Should Do” blocks such as “bathing” or “sleeping” or “school.”
6. Now invite each child to place the block on the “24 Hour Table” in order of importance – deciding which of the “Could Do” blocks should be lowest priority. Share that we should protect some time for fun activities, but we might not get to do everything we enjoy every day.
7. Read 1 Thessalonians 3:1-10 together. Paul and Silas had to leave the people they were teaching about God. In fact they had to be snuck out of the city (Acts 17:1-15). Paul was worried that the people would not follow the best path because of the hard things they were facing. Right now we are stuck at home. It is important that we use our time wisely to grow towards God like the Thessalonians did.
8. Memorize this jingle together: “Should Do before Could Do”
