Genesis

AUTHOR AND AUDIENCE

Biblical tradition credits Moses as the author of the first five books of the Bible: Genesis, Exodus, Leviticus, Numbers and Deuteronomy (though not Deuteronomy 34 - which recounts Moses' death!).

Although originally written as a "family history" for the descendants of Abraham, Genesis contains foundational information that is helpful for all Christians.

MESSAGE

The structure of Genesis is framed around several lists of "family records" (or genealogies).

Genesis 1-5 tells the story of creation and of the first family and the impact of sin.

Genesis 6-10 tells the story of God's punishment on the widespread evil of sin and his salvation of one man Noah and his family.

Genesis 11-23 introduces Abraham. God promised to make him into a great nation (this in contrast to the people of Babel who wanted to make themselves into a great nation!). God also promised Abraham land and that all the nations on the earth will be blessed through him.

ABRAHAM AND HIS DESCENDANTS

This term in church (term 2, 2023), we are looking at the story of Abraham and his descendants.

The final sections in Genesis (11-50) - along with the remainder of the whole Old Testament - records how God keeps this promises to Abraham and his descendants.

Christians believe these promises are ultimately fulfilled in Abraham's descendant - Jesus of Nazareth.

HOW TO USE THESE DEVOTIONS

These devotions should take 5-10 minutes, 5 times a week.

You will need your Bible and a pen and a quiet place to reflect on God's word. Pray before you read the passage, asking that God will speak to you. Pray after you have finished reading that God will help you live out what you have learned.
