This Week's Scripture and sermon: Matthew 4: 12-22

Rev. Chance McMullin

In Acts chapter 9—we catch up with Saul (Paul) after he had been called to preach that Jesus was the Messiah. Formerly, Saul had a high position within Judaism and was known for persecuting and even killing followers of the way of Jesus. As you can imagine, the Jewish community was not crazy about Saul (Paul) changing his perspective. After Paul had his conversion, the Jewish religious leaders sought ways to kill him. With the support of followers of Christ in Damascus, Paul escaped their physical threats and went to Jerusalem.

In Jerusalem, the followers of Christ (the apostles themselves) were afraid of Paul. Last time they saw him, he was participating in some pretty wicked acts. They would not listen to him and did not believe him. And who could blame them? Paul was in a tight spot. He had a clear call to preach Christ, to follow Christ and he also had enemies behind him. In front of him was the closed door of a past that haunted him. Nobody was willing to overlook who he had been. Paul was just 3 years into his ministry at this point. Alone. Without the support of community. Without an opportunity to join what the apostles were doing. At this point, it seemed like he was out of options.

In the middle of that struggle—at just the right time, a man named Barnabus stood up on behalf of Paul. Barnabus took Paul to the apostles and vouched for him. In one great big courageous act, Barnabus put his own credibility on the line. Barnabus seems to be the one man who did not hold Paul's past against him. If anyone should be avoided, dismissed or left out—it was this guy! He was notorious for his anger and for the harsh way he treated others. Nevertheless, Barnabus knew what Christ could do in the life of a sinner. Barnabus vouched for Paul; and because of Barnabus' intervention, the apostles agreed to allow Paul to be part of the ministry.

In my message on Sunday, I mentioned that we needed more Barnabus types in our lives. Barnabus took the cross of Jesus Christ so seriously, that he believed even a murderous zealot could be changed! I want to challenge you today to believe the same thing. I am also under the impression that Barnabus is the guy who does not always share his opinion, rather, he is the guy who is steady, supportive, encouraging—and when he finally has something to say—people listen. He does not waste his energy on trivial things, but he knows when to speak—and he knows what he believes. In his speaking up for Saul, Barnabus changed the world. Be encouraged by his example, and consider well what you have to say.

SHROVE TUESDAY
PANCAKE AND SAUSAGE
FEBRUARY 17TH, 5:00 PM-6:30 PM

The 55+ Club is hosting this “Mardi Gras” style celebration of Shrove Tuesday also known as Fat Tuesday or Pancake Day. It is the day before Ash Wednesday and the official countdown to Lent. It’s what most people associate with food! Historically, this was the last chance to use up rich ingredients like eggs, butter, and sugar before fasting, which is why pancakes became the star of the day. So, come let’s step into the Lenten season together and feast on some delicious pancakes, sausage and eggs! A free will donation will be accepted, and the proceeds will benefit our building fund. We hope to see you there! If you are age 55 and older and would like to help, contact JoDee Buso via phone, 66-553-2180 or email, jodeebuso@yahoo.com
