

WOOSTER NAZARENE

Prayers for Children November

There is power in agreement as the church prays the same prayer each day of the month. This agreement will create a prayer covering over our children. Will you join this church body as we cover our children and youth daily in prayer?

November 1

Life of Trust

Like Elijah, may our children trust God at all times for direction and provision. When it comes in an unlikely manner, may they be in awe of God and His ways.

I Kings 17: 2, 4 NIV

November 2

Tested Faith, God's Faithfulness

If our children should find themselves living on the edge of trust where unexpected things keep happening and testing their faith, may they continue to rely on God's faithfulness for wisdom, direction and breakthrough. I Kings 17: 5-7 NIV

November 3

Opportunities to Trust

May our children see all their fears as opportunities to trust God. May their fear of the Lord cause them to be in awe of Him and inspire them to move closer to Him. Joshua 2:1-9 NIV

November 4

Pay Attention, Every Detail

May our children pay attention to every detail of God's instructions and may their attentiveness help them avoid costly mistakes. Joshua 3:4 NIV

November 5

Overly Confident

After a victory, may our children remain dependent on the Lord and His protection instead of becoming overly confident in themselves and forgetting the battle is the Lord's.

Joshua 7:2-3 NIV, I Samuel 17:47 NIV

November 6

Grave Mistakes, Misjudgments

Remind our children that God knows what lies ahead and will save them from grave mistakes and misjudgments when they humble themselves and rely on His strength and wisdom rather than their own.

Joshua 7:3, 6, 11-12 NIV

November 7

Never Lose Hope

Remind our children that disobedience has consequences that may also affect those around them. May they not lose hope in the midst of their failures. Instead, may they confess their failures and seek the Lord's strength to go on.

Joshua 7:11, 19-20, 25 NIV

November 8

God is Fighting for Them

Father, like You fought for Joshua, may You fight for our children in their battles. May Your purposes be accomplished through our children in miraculous ways and may You heed their voice when they call.

Joshua 10:12-14 NIV

November 9

Serve the Lord

May our children choose at an early age to serve the Lord.

Joshua 24:15 NLT

November 10

A Blessing to Others

Like the girl in captivity, may our children be a blessing to those around them wherever they serve.

II Kings 5:2 NIV

November 11

At the Point of Need

Like the girl in captivity, may our children be ones who see past positions and prestige and touch others at their point of need.

II Kings 5:3 NIV

November 12

God's Blessing

Remind our children that God's blessing may come to them in an unconventional way through an unexpected person. May they humbly receive God's blessing in whatever manner He sends it.

II Kings 5:10 NIV

November 13

Forever Changed

Like Naaman, may our children experience the touch of God and be forever changed.

II Kings 5:17, 18 NIV

November 14

God Cares

Lord, urge our children to give all their worries and cares to Jesus who cares about them. I Peter 5:7 NLT

November 15

Gifted Abilities

Like Daniel, may our children be quick to understand and well versed in all kinds of learning. May they be gifted with knowledge and good judgment to serve in the places God calls them. Daniel 1:4 NLT

November 16

Conduct Above Reproach

Like Daniel, may our children be faithful, responsible, and trustworthy in all of life's affairs.

Daniel 6:4 NKJV, NLT

November 17

Shield, Refuge

If life tries to overwhelm our children and they become unsure or doubtful of how they can carry on, may they run to the Lord who is a shield to everyone who takes refuge in Him.

Psalms 18:30 NIV

November 18

Perfect Way

At times when our children think they have the best plan, may they take a moment to pause and inquire of God who has the perfect plan. May they be surrendered to His will and make any needed adjustments to do it God's way.

Psalms 18:30 NIV

November 19

God's Flawless Word

May our children be committed to living by God's flawless Word. As they seek to honor God by obeying His Word, may they be kept physically safe and spiritually vibrant.

Psalms 18:30 NIV

November 20

Life Above Reproach

Like Daniel, may our children be honored with promotions and positions of authority and influence as they live a life above reproach.

Daniel 6:3 NIV

November 21

Examined Lives Full of Integrity

If our children, like Daniel, should face jealous critics because of their faith, may an examination of their lives find them to be faithful, faultless, responsible and full of integrity in all they do.

Daniel 6:4, 5 NLT

November 22

Wise, Thoughtful Response

May our children remain unprovoked by the vanity of pride when pressured by others to make a quick decision on an important matter. Instead, may they make a wise and thoughtful response.

Daniel 6:6-8 NIV

November 23

Uncompromising Faith

May our children have an uncompromising faith that survives and thrives when the environment is spiritually hostile.

Daniel 6:10 NIV

November 24

Predictably Faithful

Like Daniel, may our children be predictably faithful to God even when life's pressures and schedules are pulling them away from their established times of prayer, worship and fellowship with Him.

Daniel 6:11 NIV

November 25

Posture of Prayer

Like Daniel, may our children be established in a regular posture of prayer at an early age and may that life line to God be uninterrupted by life's pressures and schedules.

Daniel 6:10-12 NLT

November 26

A Valued Relationship

At an early age, may our children establish a regular time of prayer and fellowship with the Lord. Like Daniel, may their time with the Lord take precedence in their lives.

Daniel 6:13, 16 NIV

November 27

Immeasurable Peace

May God's immeasurable peace be with our children whatever the circumstances. As they put their trust in Him through all the storms, trials and troubles that come their way, may it be a testimony to those who are watching them live for God no matter what is going on.

Daniel 6:19-23, 25 NIV

November 28

An Impacting Testimony

May our children's lives impact others as they faithfully trust and serve the Lord. May the testimony of God's power working in their lives lead others into a saving knowledge of the one true and living God who will endure forever.

Daniel 6:26, 27 NIV

November 29

Count the Cost

If the laws of our nation should continue to change and the world puts our children on the spot, may they count the cost and courageously take a stand for God no matter what happens.

Daniel 3:4-6, 12 NIV

November 30

Crossroads of Decision

At the crossroads of decision, may our children be faithful to serve God whether He intervenes on their behalf or not.

Daniel 3:14, 15 NIV

