Talk with God & others about what is now on your heart to do

Check-In

God is glad to connect with you. He wants to hear how you are doing. Take a moment to notice your primary emotion of the day to help yourself be fully present. Consider whether you are primarily sad, angry, scared, happy, excited, tender. Share with God that emotion. Share an appreciation for God, something in your life, or for another.

Reflect

Spend some time with the biblical texts and the resources below. Consider starting by making some observations or reading until something stands out to you; feel free to pause when the Lord prompts you. Talk with God about what encourages, challenges, or confuses you.

Read Deuteronomy 5:19; Luke 19:1-10

Theft is putting possession over people. It's interesting how this word of life is also open-ended. Meaning, most of the other commandments related to how we treat each other and relate to the world around us have a specific individual in mind. This commandment does not even hint at the object or person to whom this is directed. Therefore, we cannot take anything that belongs to another person. Consider what type of things do we take? How do we loosen their grip on our hearts?

Relationship - What stands out to you about being in relationship with God and our stewardship as his covenant people?

Revelation - What do you notice about the reality of God's world and ways?

Character - What do you learn about God as holy, and how, as his covenant people, we are invited to be like him?

Share

Be quiet for 3 minutes. What do you sense God is saying to you? How will you respond faithfully this week? The community is built and encouraged when we share out of our like experiences, gifts, time with God, and reflect on Scripture. What insight, question, or experience do you want to share with us?

- What did you like/not like about the Scripture?
- What did you discover about God and/or people in the passage?
- How is God inviting you to respond and live with Him this week?
- Who do you know that needs to hear this?
- Ask God: How can I bless (body, labor, emotions, social, spiritual) those people who need this?
