A detailed dialogue about tongues and the gift of prophecy

Read: 1 Corinthians 14:1-25 Comparison of the gifts of prophecy and tongues.

What are Paul's preferences in this section of Scripture?

What should be the goal of the speaking prophecy? 1 Corinthians 14:3-4, 31 also Acts 15:22, 32

What's the difference between praying and singing in the spirit versus to praying and singing with our minds?

What does 1 Corinthians 14:12 mean to you? What is Paul trying to say to us in 1 Corinthians 14:20?

Why is the interpretation of tongues important? 1 Corinthians 14:5, 12-13, 16-17

Order of Church Participation and the Gifts

Read: 1 Corinthians 14:26-40

What are some of the gifts Paul mentions occurring when saints get together?

What are the restrictions Paul puts on speaking in tongues?

What are the restrictions Paul puts on prophesying?

What is purpose of these gifts in a corporate worship setting? verses 26, 31

What is Paul trying to promote in corporate worship services as stated in 1 Corinthians 14:33 and 40?

Why does Paul state that women should remain silent in all the congregations and churches? Why are the women instead encouraged to ask their husbands at home? Compare what Paul writes 10 years later in 1 Timothy 2:8-15 (see also verses 1 Timothy 3:14-15). Is this a mere cultural directive? 1 Corinthians 14:36-38→1:2; 4:17 (to Timothy); 11:2, 16; 14:33-39.

Spiritual gifts and how they are expressed in people are likened to the parts and functions of our physical bodies that were created in the image of God.

Read: 1 Corinthians 12:12-27. Compare: Romans 1:11-12, Romans 12:3-5, and 1 Corinthians 7:7.

Just like without an eye, a hand, an arm, or not being able to hear we are considered handicapped, so is the body of Christ handicapped if one of us doesn't use our gifts for the common good of the church. The importance of meaningful fellowship: Hebrews 3:12-13 and 10:23-25 and 1 Thessalonians 5:11

Some titles of gifting

Read: 1 Corinthians 12:28-31 Compare: Romans 12:6-8 and Ephesians 4:11-16

April 12 2020 The Most Excellent Way!

Read: 1 Corinthians 13:1-13.

Please share specific miracles, stories or parables (that stand out in your mind) from Jesus life on earth that fulfill Paul's teaching about doing things in the most excellent way of love?

Below are some examples that came to my mind:

Matthew 15:21-28 (testing a Gentile woman's faith)

Mark 9:28-31 and 38-41 (teaching his disciples about God's power)

Mark 10:17-31 or Matthew 19:16-30, especially verse 21 (rich young ruler)

Luke 10:38-41 (at Martha's house)

Luke 19:45-48 (Jesus clears the temple and afterwards)

Luke 22:20-28→John 13:3-7 (the last supper servanthood)

Luke 24:13-32 (on the road to Emmaus)

April 5, 2020 Spiritual gifts are given for the common good.

Read: 1 Corinthians 12:1-11. Compare: 1 Corinthians 1:4-7 and Hebrews 2:1-4; 1 Timothy 4:13-16; 2 Timothy 1:6-7; 1 Peter 4:7-11

Eagerly desire spiritual gifts, especially the gift of prophecy: 1 Corinthians 12:31; 14:1, 3-5, 12, 31, 39a.

March 29, 2020 Examining ourselves before the Lord's Supper.

Read: 1 Corinthians 11:17-34 Last week we highlighted:

The discord that was going on in the Corinthian Church (1 Corinthians 1:10-17; 3:1-9 and 11:17-19) and a similar dispute that occurred immediately after Jesus shared the bread and wine with the 12 Apostles (Luke 22:24-30). Jesus settled the dispute of "who was the greatest among his disciples" by example. He washed the apostle's feet as recorded in John 13:2-17. He showed them it wasn't about who is the greatest but about how we can serve and refresh others.

We looked at the spirit and tenor of the Passover meal and the Lord's Last Supper with his Apostles which are both precursors of the present day communion service. Therefore a similar tone and tenor should be present in our celebration of the Lord's Last Supper. The focus of the communion service should not be participation with
