Some of you have asked for any updates on the IW friend who was kidnapped in Niger this past October. It's been three months of silence. Please continue to pray for him and his family.

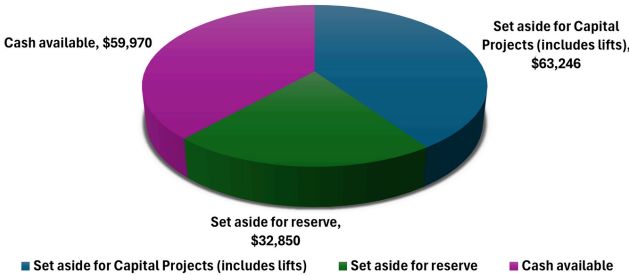

News from Niger continues to be hard. Terrorists are driving more and more people from their villages. People are streaming into Niamey (the capital city) with only the belongings they could carry.

But there is also some good news. Harry lives in a village where they have welcomed many people who fled their own villages last spring. He has been teaching a Bible story to a group of children. After he told the story, several of the children took turns retelling it, and some of them did a very good job! Praise the Lord that his word is continually being shared! Please pray for courage and capacity for Harry as he teaches children and adults, sharing the hope he's found in Jesus, and that God will draw many to himself through Harry's words and example.

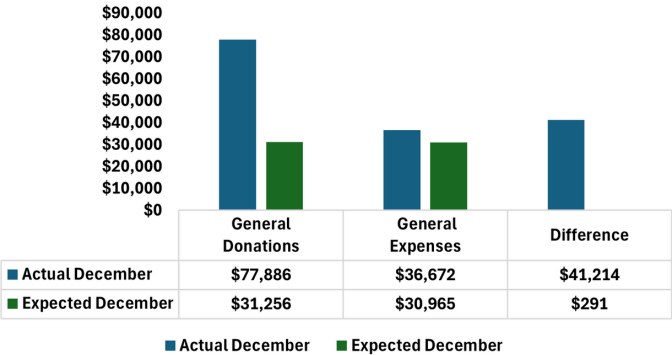

Lord, may your Kingdom come! May Your will be done in Niger as it is in heaven!
