The situation in Iran:

Across Iran, fear, grief, and uncertainty are pressing heavily on ordinary people. Internet access has been restricted. Telephone lines have been shut down. Many are isolated, anxious, and searching for something solid to hold onto.

Whereas the internet is not available, Farsi-language satellite ministry is continuing to reach into homes across Iran with biblical teaching, prayer, and the hope of Jesus Christ. While other connections have gone silent, the Lord is still opening a way for people to hear the Good News. Believers and seekers are being strengthened through Christian programming.

Middle East and Arabian Peninsula | Pray for the Middle East and Arabian Peninsula, trusting that God is sovereign and that His presence remains with His people in every season. Pray for International Workers and their families who are sheltering in place—that God would surround them with His peace, strengthen them emotionally and spiritually, and guide them in faithfulness. Pray that His mercy and redemptive purposes continue to unfold in this region.

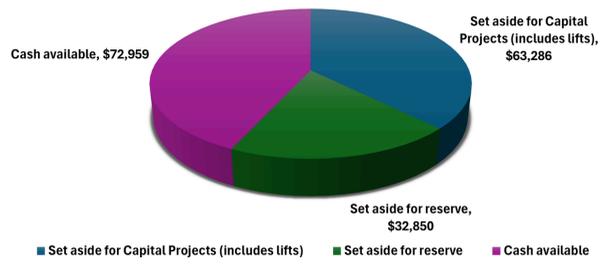

Japan | Pray with Jocelyn and Joze for the Japanese people, still the second-largest least-reached people group in the world. Pray for our friends in Shiohama and the surrounding islands, that they would see the faithfulness and lovingkindness of King Jesus lived out by His followers who remain among them as salt and light.

Japan | Pray with Laura K. for a recently baptized Japanese friend who is now facing severe rejection from his family. Pray that he finds strength in Jesus as his King and a deep sense of belonging in his church family. Also, pray for guidance and motivation as he considers his next steps after university.
