THE JAFFRAY OFFERING

The Jaffray Offering is named after Robert Jaffray, an Alliance international worker who served in China, Indonesia and several other countries and believed in empowering local believers to teach and preach the Gospel.

This week, let's pray for the unreached and those who share Jesus:

The unreached: More than three billion people have still never heard the name of Jesus. Pray that God would open closed doors, soften hard hearts, and send willing workers into the hardest, least-reached places on earth.

Those who risk everything: Across every region, believers face real danger to follow and share Jesus. Pray for their courage, their families, and their perseverance—that where the cost is highest, the Gospel would spread fastest.

Children of International Workers | Pray for children who are adjusting to a new culture and language. Pray that the Lord would enable them to learn their new language with ease and that they would feel confident in communicating with others even while they are learning. Pray that they will have a sense of belonging even when everything seems foreign.
