"The more we know God, the more we know his heart. And the more we see the unique ways he is inviting us to partner with him, to be faithfully present and attentive to his work in our neighbourhoods, towns, and cities.

Every church has a unique role to play in advancing God's kingdom. When you look at your community, what do you see?"

PAST, PRESENT, FUTURE: INDIGENOUS LEADERS GATHERING

On November 6–8, the Indigenous Alliance Church of Canada (IACC) hosted a gathering at First Nations Community Church (FNCC) in Winnipeg, MB. In the weeks leading up to the event, anticipation was high. Jim Anderson, pastor of FNCC, described it as _"a meaningful opportunity to strengthen relationships, celebrate God's work among our churches, and discuss the path forward for ministry and reconciliation."

LENDING TO THE LORD

In response to the war in Ukraine, The Alliance Canada has partnered with Good Works Mission in Warsaw. The Good Works Centre has developed into a comprehensive help centre during the war, serving both as a centre of assistance for Ukrainian refugees and as a coordination centre for humanitarian convoys into Ukraine.

Pray for all of our Canadian churches that are having special Christmas services. Pray for the Ladies' banquet this week as well as the Festival of Nine Lessons. Pray that our witness at this time would result in people coming to faith.

Thanks for praying!
