KEY OF A

Verse 1

Oh the cross upon Your shoulders
Oh Your love for all mankind
Every step that You were taking
Was a step in place of mine
Oh the scars that You endured
Oh the weight of painful sin
Was salvation for this world
To begin again

Verse 2

It was sin that separated
But Your blood has brought me near
You came God and men among us
To repair our brokenness
This is undeserved affection
I'm a trophy of Your grace
Overwhelmed by Your forgiveness
There's no equal love

Chorus

Just the cross, it's enough
Just the cross, it's enough
Just the cross, it's enough
Just the cross, it's enough

Verse 3

When darkness had its moment
And death thought that he had won
Still Your perfect plan in motion
For the world that You so loved
On the third You rose again
Oh Your power conquered death
So that I could live forever
Hallelujah

Bridge

You are alive, our risen King
Your love is stronger than the grave
Now on the throne seated on high
Yours is the victory
