

How to Huddle

Core:

1. Connecting with your group weekly
2. Listening to this corresponding podcast
3. Attending the brunches

How to begin:

Listen to the two intro podcast episodes.

New groups begin every brunch.

Your Huddle:

Who should be in your Huddle?

These groups of 3-5 people are meant to be your tough stuff people.

When do we meet?

Connect in person or touch base electronically every week.

In person: Plan 15 minutes per person in your group. (i.e. 45 min./3 people, 1 hr./4 people, 1 hr.15 min./5 people) wherever makes the most sense.

We encourage these to keep these short times to keep this manageable for everyone to continue committing to this group.

Where should we meet?

Meet whenever makes the most sense for your group.

How do we do it?

- There is no leader (trade off being the time keeper)
- Ask these four questions:
 - Where did you see God this week?
 - Where did you miss God this week?
 - Where do you need God to show up next week?
 - Where do I need accountability?

*There is a PDF with more explanation and examples of each question

How to Huddle

Brunches

Monthly brunches every month in G2 during second hour

- Fellowship
- Share stories of how God is moving
- Short Q&A
- Opportunity for new people to come and see what Huddles are all about

Podcast

Weekly corresponding podcast episode to listen to as you go to meet with your Huddle.

- 10 minutes long
- Provide encouragement, insight and clarity
- Gives weekly recommendations of accountability steps to take

This is intended to be a framework for your group to use to grow in your relationships with each other and with God. Feel free to adjust it as needed to fit your experience and life circumstances.
