Questions for the Community

1. Review the key truth and verse from this week. If this is new to you, consider the implications for your marriage. If you have known this already, evaluate how carefully you are abiding by it.
2. Make your own list of what it means to “leave and cleave”.
3. Schedule time to be with your spouse in a stress free place and discuss your friendship. Be open to ask for input and then commit before the Lord together to grow.
4. Evaluate how you are applying what God is teaching you from the Bible and life to your marriage. Repent where there are problems and begin applying at home first.
5. Pray together today. Then repeat.
