Questions to spur you forward to action

1. Re-read the passage from Sunday. What stands out to you? Is there something present in your life that lines up with this? What is missing that you need to grow up in?
2. On Sunday, “hiding out” and “burning out” were mentioned. Have you experienced those? Are you currently?
3. What are stated reasons and real reasons that people tend to not use their gifts to build up the body?
4. Read Rom. 12:3-8 and Phil. 2:1-4 and all of 1 Cor. 12. How can you summarize big themes of teamwork from these? What is 1 action step you will take away from these and begin to obey? How will you measure if you have progressed in this area?
5. Walking in fellowship and friendship is one of the best ways to discover, practice and be encouraged to persevere in using our gifts. Discuss with your mates what God is leading you to do. This may be continue in a current ministry, start a brand new one or take greater steps of commitment or responsibility.
6. Seek God’s grace and favor as you respond to his loving leadership in this area.
