Questions for the Community

1. Grief can be very similar and yet is always individual. What does this mean for the Christian looking to be a neighbor to a hurting world?
2. How have you dealt with past grief? Was it helpful? Did you grow up with more of a “grief is good” or “grief is bad” mentality?
3. What comfort does God’s sovereignty bring? What questions has it raised? What will you do about this?
4. 2 Samuel 12:13-14 and 20 describe David crying out while there is still hope. What does this model about OUR relationship with God?
5. Spend time sharing griefs present today. Minister God’s comfort to one another.
