Questions for the Community

Personal Reflection

1. Who are you influencing? What does your life communicate to others about what's important?
2. Are you setting a good example in speech, in conduct, in love, in faith, and in purity?

Group Discussion

3. Review the passage and message. What most grabbed you and why? Discuss with your group.
4. How has your faith been influenced by those older and younger than you? How have you influenced the faith of others?
5. Where do you see intergenerational relationships thriving? How can you foster more—and deeper—connection across generations?
6. What inspires you to live a life of example? What helps you preserve?

Plan of Action

7. Take some time to affirm the gifting of others in your group. How have you seen them use their gift to build up the faith of others?
