

Oceans of Joy~ Philippians 1:9-11
January 21, 2024

Next Week: Philippians 1:12-18

Questions for the Community

Devoted to Learning

1. Re-read Paul's prayer in Philippians 1:9-11. Why do you think he is praying this for them? Have you ever had someone pray like this for you?
2. Feelings and intellect are not enemies or polar opposites but designed by God for good. How is the word (and therefor the idea) of love used UN-Biblically? What results have come from defining love however we choose?
3. How does one obey and fulfill the prayer in these verses (9-11)? What specifically has that looked like in you or someone you know?

Devoted to one another

4. Share with the person next to you if you are more of a 'thinker' or a 'feeler'. How is this a great strength for you? Why is it a struggle?
5. Tell of a time you were steered wrong because feelings were lying to you. How did you see the error? What did you do to correct it?
6. Review the 2 action points from Sunday and re-read those verses. Which lands hardest and what action comes with it? (this may be renewed desire to continue in what you are doing or course correct)

Devoted to praying

7. If you know someone trapped in lies and running for destruction, pray for them! If you are in fellowship with believers, pray that you all will grow up in love by God's grace.

2 ways to identify RIGHT from WRONG:

1. Through _____
Romans 12:1-2

2. By _____
Hebrews 5:11-6:2