- My God supplies all my needs according to His riches in glory. He is Jehovah Jireh—my Provider. My job is not my source. My credit cards and my relatives are not my source. God is my only Source of supply, and I trust in Him. (Philippians 4:19)
- I refuse to worry about my financial situation. I will not fall into the temptation to fear or have anxiety or any care. I cast my cares over onto the Lord because if He takes care of the birds and flowers, He'll certainly take care of me. (Matthew 6:25-34)

- I am a faithful tither—and because I tithe, my finances are protected from the devourer. Right now, I rebuke the devourer in the Name of Jesus—I command you to release my finances now and flee. I plead the blood of Jesus over my money and my possessions. No weapon formed against me, my family or my finances will prosper in Jesus' Name! (Malachi 3:10-11; Luke 18:12; Isaiah 54:17)

- I seek first the kingdom of God; therefore, everything I need will be added to me. The Lord takes pleasure in my prosperity, so I declare that I am prosperous in Jesus' Name! I have more than enough, I am blessed to be a blessing! I am a giver, and I receive a hundredfold return in this time. (Matthew 6:33; Psalm 35:27; Mark 10:30)

- I walk in a spirit of self-control with my finances. I will not be tempted to overspend or lust after material possessions. I am a faithful steward of the finances God has blessed me with, and I will not go into debt from this day forward. I choose to live by faith. (Galatians 5:16; Psalm 119:66; Hebrews 10:38)

- I delight myself in the Lord, and He gives me the desires of my heart.(Psalm 37:4)
