

Front Desk Receptionist

The Crossing, A Christian Church exists for people to discover Jesus and the Journey. That journey often begins with a phone call or a visit to our church office. Like most professional offices, this is a place where business is conducted and tasks are completed, but it is also a place where lost people can find a safe place to take their first steps with God, and where hurting people can find help.

By welcoming all our guests with a cheerful greeting and a friendly smile, our Receptionists create an outstanding first impression and an approachable environment. They are flexible, adaptable and handle change gracefully. They also exude our motto to “Love God, Love People and Serve Others” by providing excellent customer service and compassion to all who call or visit our church office. This position is perfect for an enthusiastic individual with whom God has gifted with exemplary communication skills and enjoys meeting and greeting new people every day!

Responsibilities:

Front Desk:

- Provide an outstanding first impression for guests over the phone and in person
- Answer phones by the third ring, even if it is to place a caller on hold for a moment
- Always acknowledge guests approaching the front desk
- Quickly and accurately assess guests needs and connect them to the appropriate contact
- Accept deliveries in a friendly manner, offering assistance with large shipments
- Immediately inform staff of deliveries and bring packages directly to staff desks when able
- Forward emailed messages from the Answering Service to the appropriate staff members
- Collect incoming mail, set out outgoing mail, and update “check spreadsheet”
- Take ownership in the appearance and cleanliness of the Front Desk and Lobby at all times
- Maintain the checks received log for any checks received at the front desk
- Update CCB for any phone or email information received from callers or visitors

Communication Hub:

- Establish yourself as the “go to” person for the “who, what, when and where”
- Be intentionally well-informed about the ins and outs of staff, volunteers and visitors using the CCB calendar as a tool (keep open to check frequently)
- Keep in contact with the Facilities Team, utilizing the walkie-talkie radios when necessary
- Create and post signs on the front door for office closures, such as holidays and prayer days
- Communicate regularly with the Answering Service, informing them of special events or closures
- Check the incoming fax folder each day and distribute to appropriate staff

Back-up Receptionists:

- Recruit, train, schedule and oversee volunteers to serve as Back-up Receptionists
- Maintain the Admin Back-up Receptionist Schedule and train all newly hired Admins
- Utilize Back-up Receptionists (volunteers or admins) for time off requests or all-staff events

Phone System:

- Become an expert of all aspects of the phone system - be prepared to answer any inquiries
- Maintain the phone extension list (front desk phone), removing and adding as necessary
- Maintain the paper phone extension list, updating as necessary and distributing to staff
- Reset the name and password on all new hires’ phones, as requested by HR
- Perform periodic audits of all extensions and message to verify accuracy

Schedule:

- Position is shared with 3 receptionists - each will work 2 (set) days a week, and occasionally will work an extra day (or more) to cover each other's vacations or other time off
- Weekly hours vary from 11 to 16 (but could be up to 24 if covering for other Receptionists)

Requirements:

- Exhibits spiritual maturity
