October Verse

Hey parents!

Knowledge is one thing, but wisdom is another. When Solomon became king, his father, David, gave him very wise advice. "And you, my son Solomon, acknowledge the God of your father, and serve Him with wholehearted devotion and with a willing mind, for the Lord searches every heart and understands every desire and every thought. If you seek Him, He will be found by you; but if you forsake Him, He will reject you forever. Consider now, for the Lord has chosen you to build a temple as a sanctuary. Be strong and do the work." (1 Chronicles 28:9-10)

If you were to give your children wise, spiritual advice, what would you say?

Take the Family Challenge

Parents, write a short note filled with solid, spiritual advice for each of your kids. Spend some one-on-one time with your child and share the wisdom with them. Together, pick a verse for your child to live by. Ask your kids to keep this letter in a safe place, so they can read it again in the future.

"Have I not commanded you? Be strong and courageous. Do not be afraid: do not be discouraged, for the Lord your God will be with you wherever you go." Joshua 1:9 ☐
