Fall 2025 - Lesson 4

Hey parents!

Have you ever made a promise to your kids? No matter the size of the promise, when we keep our word, it shows we are a person of integrity. In our Bible lesson today, King David kept his promise to his true friend, Jonathan. Promises may be difficult to keep, but they are important in a world where promises are often broken or taken lightly. This week, let's discuss with our kids the value of being a promise keeper.

Take the Family Challenge

Dig into your Bibles and find three examples of how God kept His promises. Write them down on a piece of paper and hang it on your refrigerator to remind you of God's promises. After you finish, discuss as a family why it is easy or hard to keep promises. Open your Bible and read John 14:2-3. What do these verses promise if you are a Christian?
