

FOREFRONT SMALL GROUP STUDY

Circles > Rows is a short series that explores how the Gospel doesn't just gather us for worship—it shapes us through community. While Sunday services matter, real transformation happens when we move from sitting in rows to living life in circles. Through Scripture and shared stories, this series invites us to step out of isolation, discover new perspectives of Jesus through one another, and experience the kind of belonging we were designed for.

Icebreaker Question:

What's something you 100% believed would be amazing... but it ended up being wildly disappointing?

Examples: a viral recipe, a movie everyone hyped up, a "life-changing" Amazon purchase, a diet, a gadget, etc.

DAILY WALK / NEXT STEP:

Read James 1:22–25 once a day this week and do one small thing that puts it into practice.

GROUP STUDY:

James 1:22–25;
Matthew 7:21–23

1. What's a time you knew the right thing to do but didn't do it?
2. What's the difference between being a fan of Jesus and a follower of Jesus?
3. What situation in your life most clearly reveals what you really believe?
4. Where is it easiest to "talk faith" without actually living it?
5. What's one area where your beliefs are strong but your habits haven't caught up yet?
6. What usually keeps people from changing even when they want to?
7. What is one small step of obedience you can take this week to move from hearing to doing?

Looking Ahead to Next Sunday:
TOPIC: Trust isn't trust until it costs you control.

Proverbs 3:5–6; Philippians 4:6–7; Matthew 6:25–34
