

FOREFRONT SMALL GROUP STUDY

Series Overview: But God

When life feels finished, God is still writing the story. This series explores how He brings life out of what feels dead, works in the middle of confusion, uses disruption for His purpose, transforms what seems too far gone, and moves even when He feels hidden. Because if it's not too dead for God, then it's not too late for hope.

Icebreaker:

If people made a snap judgment about you in the first 30 seconds, what's one thing they'd probably get completely wrong?

DAILY WALK / NEXT STEP:

Identify one person you've quietly written off—or one area of your life you've stopped believing can change.

Commit to praying for that person (or that area) every day this week, asking God to do what only He can do—and stay open to how He might want to involve you in the process.

GROUP STUDY

5.3.26

Read: Acts 9:1–6, 15, 1 Timothy 1:15–16, 2 Corinthians 5:17

1. Have you ever been completely wrong about someone? What changed your perspective?
 2. Why do you think it's so easy for us to write people off?
 3. Which of the three takeaways stood out to you most, and why?
 4. What's the difference between behavior modification and true transformation? Have you seen that play out in your life?
 5. How does Saul's story challenge the way we think about people who seem far from God?
 6. Is there an area of your life where you feel stuck or unchanged? What might it look like for God to redirect that?
 7. How can we hold both truth and grace when dealing with people who have hurt us or seem resistant to change?
