

FOREFRONT SMALL GROUP STUDY

Series Overview:

Family Matters is a four-week series exploring God's design for relationships, marriage, parenting, and the home. Together we'll discover that family isn't about perfection—it's about formation, faithfulness, and living out God's purpose alongside the people He has placed in our lives. Whether your family feels thriving, messy, or somewhere in between, this series will offer practical hope and biblical wisdom for the journey.

ICEBREAKER:

If animals could talk, which animal do you think would be the rudest?

DAILY WALK / NEXT STEP:

This week, choose one relationship in your life and intentionally practice covenant love. Write the encouraging text. Make the phone call. Offer the apology. Extend forgiveness. Take one practical step toward loving someone the way Jesus has loved you.

GROUP STUDY

6.7.26

Read: Genesis 1:26–28, Genesis 2:18–25, Matthew 19:4–6

1. When you hear the phrase "God's design for family," what comes to mind?
2. Why do you think so many people struggle with relationships, even when they genuinely care about one another?
3. What's the difference between a relationship built on convenience and one built on commitment?
4. Have you ever expected another person to meet a need that only God could meet? What happened?
5. Why do you think Scripture consistently points us back to God's original design rather than simply addressing our current circumstances?
6. What does it practically look like to keep Jesus at the center of a relationship or family?
7. What is one area of your relationships where God may be inviting you to move closer to His design?

Looking Ahead to Next Sunday:

TOPIC: Formed, Not Perfected

Deuteronomy 6:4–9, Psalm 127:1–5, Proverbs 22:6
