

FOREFRONT SMALL GROUP STUDY

Series Overview:

Prayer is more than asking God for what we need—it's an invitation into a deeper relationship with Him. In When We Pray, we'll discover how prayer shapes our hearts, strengthens our faith, and empowers us to live with greater peace, purpose, and confidence in our everyday lives. Whether you're new to prayer or have been praying for years, this series will help you experience prayer the way Jesus intended.

ICEBREAKER:

If you could know the answer to one future event in your life—but you couldn't change it—would you want to know? Why or why not?

DAILY WALK / NEXT STEP:

This week, spend five uninterrupted minutes with God each day.

Begin by honestly telling Him what you're hoping for, worried about, or struggling with. Then finish every prayer with these simple words:

"Father, not my will, but Yours be done."

Don't rush to fill the silence. Simply remain with Him and practice trusting His presence more than seeking immediate answers.

2. Why do you think trusting can sometimes be harder than asking?
3. What's the difference between giving up and surrendering?
4. Why do you think honesty is such an important part of a healthy relationship—with God or with other people?
5. When life feels uncertain, where do you naturally look for security or control?
6. What practices help you stay spiritually connected to God during difficult seasons?
7. If you could summarize what it means to pray, "Your will be done," in your own words, what would you say?
