

FOREFRONT SMALL GROUP STUDY

Series Overview:

STRANGER THINGS

The stories that seem the strangest often reveal God's character the clearest. The Bible is full of moments that make us stop and ask, "Why would God do that?" In this series, we'll slow down and look beneath the surface of these unusual stories. Along the way, we'll meet a God who faithfully pursues His people, transforms them through grace, keeps His promises, and continually points us to Jesus.

Icebreaker:

If your life this week came with a hilariously honest product warning label, what would it say?

DAILY WALK / NEXT STEP:

Name the Promise

Identify one lesser love you rely on for identity, security, or satisfaction. Write down what it promises you.

Pray: "God, I've been looking to _____ for what only You can give. Help me receive Your love and trust that You are enough."

Choose one action this week that reinforces that prayer.

GROUP STUDY

9.23.26

Read: Hosea 1:2–3; 3:1–2; 2:23;
1 Peter 2:10

1. What do people often rely on for happiness, identity, or security?
2. How can a good thing quietly become an idol in our lives?
3. Sin often "overpromises and underdelivers." Where have you seen that pattern?
4. Why is it hard to believe we are still loved after we fail or wander?
5. In Hosea 3:1–2, what does the command to "go" and love again reveal about God?
6. Which reversal in Hosea 2:23 or 1 Peter 2:10 speaks to you most, and why?
7. What would "coming home" to God look like in one area of your life this week?

Looking Ahead to Next Sunday:

Join us next week for Serve Sunday!

Register at forefront.org/servesunday

Have questions about this study or about Forefront Church? You can contact evan@forefront.org and our team will help you.