

FOREFRONT SMALL GROUP STUDY

Series Overview:

BELL TOWERS: A CALL THAT CAN'T BE IGNORED

For centuries, church bells called communities to stop, pay attention, remember, and respond. In this series, we'll explore moments in Scripture when God rings the bell—comforting, challenging, warning, and inviting His people to return to Him. God's call is never meant simply to be heard. It is meant to lead us to Jesus and move us toward faithful obedience.

Icebreaker:

What's something from your childhood or younger years that instantly brings back a flood of memories?

DAILY WALK / NEXT STEP:

Build a Stone

Choose one specific moment of God's faithfulness you don't want to forget. Write it down somewhere you'll see it this week—a note, your phone, a journal, or even a physical object that can remind you.

When you see it, pause and thank God for what He has done.

GROUP STUDY

9.27.26

Read: Joshua 4:1–7; Psalm 77:11–12

1. Why do you think God told Israel to build a memorial after crossing the Jordan?
2. What are some ways we naturally forget what God has done when life gets busy or difficult?
3. What moments of God's faithfulness in your life are important for you to remember right now?
4. How can remembering what God has done in the past strengthen our faith in the present?
5. What "stones of remembrance" could help you keep God's faithfulness visible in your everyday life?
6. Who needs to hear the story of what God has done in your life, and what keeps you from sharing it?
7. Where might God be calling you to remember before you react, worry, or move on?
