

SERIES: ALL THINGS NEW
MESSAGE: "BEYOND"

SPEAKER: BRAD WILLIAMS
DATE: NOV 15, 2020

BIBLICAL TEXT(S) + MESSAGE SUMMARY: GENESIS 12:1-4, JEREMIAH 29:4-7, HEBREWS 11:8-10

In the final sermon of this four part series, we see how the life of Abraham helps illustrate the purpose of the Church. He was promised land and a legacy so that he might be a blessing to all people. His legacy came through a promised son, Isaac, who he and Sarah birthed. However, much like exiles everywhere, Abraham remained a foreigner in the land where he lived.

Christians today can also feel like foreigners or guest in their own homelands. That's why this message also unpacks Jeremiah's letter to the exiled Israelites in Babylon as a blueprint for Beyond. The letter points to God's desire for his blessing to go beyond his people. It helps us understand how Christians should seek wholeness, or the shalom, of the Gospel, in their relationships, communities, and cities, despite feeling like strangers in a strange land.

Pastor Brad also shared this illustration during the message which shows how the 4 Bs work together to accomplish the mission of the Gospel through the Church.
