

October 24: Put Something on the Altar

Read Genesis 13:18.

- The Gospel advances because believers are willing to place something on the altar. Someone gives. Someone goes. Someone prays. Someone serves. Someone chooses Kingdom purposes over personal comfort. What does sacrifice for God's Kingdom mean to you?
- When has serving God genuinely cost you something? Which resource are you most reluctant to surrender — time, money, comfort, or ability?
- How can your lifestyle demonstrate that God's Kingdom is a priority? What is God asking you to place on the altar today?

Make this declaration in faith: "My life belongs to God. I willingly surrender my time, talents, and resources for His purposes and to reach others."

October 25: Sow Into Eternity

Read 2 Corinthians 9:6.

- Rev. Divine shared with us, "When you give to missions, you are not simply funding an event. You are sowing into eternity." What does it mean to "sow into eternity"? How does an eternal perspective change the way you view giving?
- Where are you currently investing most of your resources? What could you sacrifice to become more involved in missions? How can you intentionally invest in spreading the Gospel this week?
- Your giving can help spread the Gospel, support missionaries, plant churches, and transform lives beyond your reach. Give to missions, take the Extravagant Giving Challenge, and commit to serve faithfully at Agape House. Sow into eternity and bless lives beyond your generation.

Prayer: Pray for an eternal perspective on everything God has entrusted to you. Ask Him to help you generously invest your prayers, time, talents, and resources in spreading the Gospel and producing an eternal harvest.

Daily Devotional for POSSESSING THE NATIONS

Here is a Daily Devotional to enable you to make the most out of this sermon. You may use it for your personal growth or discuss it together in your Life Group.

October 19: Lift Up Your Eyes

Read Genesis 13:14.

- What spoke to you the most from the sermon "POSSESSING THE NATIONS"? How would what you heard influence your view of missions in Agape House?
- What do you see when you look at the world around you? How much of your attention is focused primarily on your own needs?
- Which people or places has God recently brought to your attention? How does what you see influence what you are willing to sacrifice?
- What would developing a greater Kingdom vision look like in your life?

Make this declaration in faith: "God is enlarging my vision beyond myself. I will see people and nations through His eyes and make His Kingdom a priority in my life."

October 20: See the Harvest

Read John 4:35.

- People around us are searching for hope, truth, purpose, and salvation. Who represents the harvest around you right now?
- When was the last time someone's spiritual condition moved you with compassion?
- What can prevent Christians from recognizing the harvest around them?
- Who has God positioned in your life that needs to hear about Jesus?
- Rev. Divine said, "What you see determines what you will sacrifice for." What does this statement mean to you? How can you become more involved in reaching the harvest?

Pray this prayer by faith: "Lord Jesus, open my eyes to the harvest around me. Give me compassion for people who need You and make me sensitive to opportunities to share Your love. Use my life to lead others to You. Amen."

October 21: Arise and Go

Read Matthew 28:19.

- What does Jesus' command to "go" mean personally to you? Where has God positioned you to represent Christ?
- What fear or excuse could be keeping you from taking action? Who could you intentionally reach with the Gospel this week?
- What step can you take today to participate in the Great Commission?
- It is possible to pray about missions, talk about evangelism, and celebrate what God is doing around the world without personally taking a step. But the Great Commission contains movement: Go. Find out how you can do more to fulfill this command at the Welcome Center or call 0544331087.

Prayer: Pray for courage to move beyond fear, comfort, and excuses and obey Christ's command to go. Ask God to show you where He wants you to serve, witness, and make disciples.

October 22: Send Me

Read Isaiah 6:8.

- Rev. Divine reminded us, "The danger of the assignment does not cancel the value of the souls." What does this statement mean to you?
- How would you respond if God asked, "Who will go?" Which fears make it difficult for you to say, "Send me"?
- Do you believe reaching people for Christ is your personal responsibility? Why?
- Where might God currently be asking you to represent Him? What would complete availability to God look like in your life?

Prayer: Make yourself available to God and ask Him to use you wherever He chooses. Pray for boldness to say, "Here am I! Send me," and faithfully represent Christ wherever He sends you.

October 23: Ask for the Nations

Read Psalm 2:8.

- The memory verse for today says of God, "Ask of Me, and I will give You the nations for Your inheritance." God wants our prayers to be bigger than ourselves. How much of your prayer life is focused beyond your personal needs?
- Which nation or group of people has God placed on your heart?
- What would it mean for you to begin praying for the nations consistently?
- How can prayer deepen your involvement in missions? What bold Kingdom request will you bring before God today?

Pray this prayer by faith: "Father, give me a heart for the nations. Let the Gospel reach people who have never heard the name of Jesus, strengthen those who carry Your Word, and open doors for Your Kingdom throughout the earth. Use my prayers as part of Your mission in the world. In Jesus' name I pray. Amen."
