Missionary Prayer

Ministry to State-Chuck Garriott

Ministry to State is advancing the Church's reach into those government communities in Washington DC & 9 State Capitols. Ministry to State cares foremost about people, not policy. We believe God's Word is full of wisdom for anyone seeking to integrate their faith with public service. We aim to create a community of study, prayer, and formation to encourage those whom God has called into public service. <https://www.ministrytostate.org/>

The past few months have marked a fruitful season of ministry here in Washington, D.C. The A Street House continues to be an invaluable asset, providing a welcoming space for weekly gatherings, strategic meetings, and events that foster deep gospel relationships in the heart of our nation's capital. It has been amazing to see how God is using this corner home on Capitol Hill for His purposes.

Each summer, Ministry to State engages hundreds of interns who come to Washington seeking experience in congressional offices. Our weekly event, Commons, draws these university students for dinner, fellowship, and engaging speakers. These evenings give us a unique opportunity to form meaningful gospel-centered relationships with young people from across the country.

PRAYER REQUESTS:

- Praise God for the incredible gift of the A Street House—such a strategic location for ministry!
- Pray that the Lord would raise up additional staff—both men and women—with a heart for Washington and the gospel.
- Provision is needed: several of our staff members are currently underfunded. Please pray for full financial support to be raised.
- Pray for a new Associate Director of State Capitols. Following the passing of our dear friend Thomas Eddy, we are seeking the right person to fill this crucial role.
