

WEEKLY ANNOUNCEMENTS

January 18, 2026

LOOKING AHEAD – January 25, “Come As You Are, Bring What You Have” inspired by Matthew 4:12-23 - Ecumenical Sunday & Health and Human Service Sunday

What do fishing nets, Southern California earthquakes, and modern health care have in common? According to Jesus—everything. This Sunday’s sermon explores Matthew 4:12–23, where Jesus begins his ministry not in a palace or cathedral, but along the shoreline—calling ordinary people into a movement of healing, hope, and shared purpose. We’ll reflect on what it means to follow Jesus together across traditions—and to see care for body, mind, and community as holy work. If you’ve ever wondered whether faith can still make a real difference in the world, this message is for you.

TODAY’S ALTAR FLOWERS - All are invited to celebrate with Guy and Judy Hatlie at coffee hour today honoring their 60th Wedding Anniversary. Enjoy a slice of cake and see photos from their 6 decades together. Bring your best hugs on down to the patio.
