SPIRITUAL GIFTS KEY

Below is a list of spiritual gifts. Spiritual gifts are not the same as talents, but are spiritual strengths God gives for being a part of his work in the world. The list below is by no means exhaustive. There are many different attributes identified as spiritual gifts in the Bible, and even those are not complete listings of the ways God gifts people to do his work. This assessment and list below is simply meant to be a tool to help you better understand the gifts God is expressing in you. Throughout your life, as you grow, change and experience different things, your spiritual gifts may change. We hope that this list provides a glimpse into the part God has for you in his body now. To learn more about spiritual gifts you can look at 1 Corinthians 12:27-31, Romans 12:3-8 and Ephesians 4:11-16.

A - FAITH: The gift to trust God for what can't be seen and, pressing forward, to act upon the promises of God. (Romans 4:18-21; Hebrews Chapter 11)

E - ENCOURAGEMENT: The gift to provide encouragement, comfort, reassurance and support in ways that foster healing and wholeness (1 Thessalonians 5:11; Romans 12:8)

F - MERCY: The gift to detect the emotional pains of others. To feel compassion, listen and provide loving-care. (Luke 10:30-37; Romans 12:8; Matthew 20:29-34)

G - GIVING: The gift to cheerfully contribute material resources above and beyond a tithe to others and the church. (2 Corinthians 8:1-7; Romans 12:8; Mark 12:41-44)

J - ADMINISTRATION: The gift to design and effectively execute plans managing people, resources, and time in order to reach the long range goals and objectives of the ministry team or church. (Titus 1:5; 1 Corinthians 12:28)

K - INTERCESSORY PRAYER: The gift to pray for extended periods of time on a regular basis and frequently see direct results to those prayers (James 5:14-16, 1 Timothy 2:1-2; John Chapter 17; Colossians 1:9-12, 4:12-13; Acts 12:12; Luke 22:41-44)

Spiritual gifts are only a part of the makeup of who we are and how we serve God. The more aware we are of our whole SHAPE, the easier it is to plug into service and passions that will leave us fulfilled and feeling effective.

HEART/PASSIONS

Heart has to do with our passions, the things that excite us, the things that give us joy, the things that bring us energy and sometimes the things that keep us awake at night. The things we are passionate about are not by accident. The better we understand and follow our passions, the more fulfilled we are in joining in God's work.

What do your dreams and desires drift toward?

What needs do you love meeting for others and why?

What causes or issues make your heart race?

(If you are having trouble with this question, here is a very incomplete list to get your thoughts rolling: abuse/violence, alcoholism, at-risk children, Christ-centered parenting, compulsive behavior issues, disabilities, divorce, drug abuse/recovery, education, environment, ethics, financial stewardship, health/fitness, HIV/AIDS, homelessness, hunger, social justice, legal issues, marriage/family, policy/politics, poverty, sanctity of life, sexuality/gender issues, spiritual apathy)

What age and affinity groups do you most enjoy working with?

ABILITIES

God has given all of us a wide range of different abilities, or natural gifts and talents. It is through these natural gifts and talents that we engage in serving God and joining in God's work.

Below, circle the abilities, skills or trades that you have and enjoy offering in the service of others. Add any others that do not appear on the list.

PERSONALITY

God has designed us all with unique and different personality traits. Our personalities shape how we respond to other people and to opportunities. There are a number of very in-depth personality profiles available, the list below is not one of them. It is simply to help you better understand your personality and how it helps to shape your response to the world around you. Please remember that even though as a society we often value certain personality characteristics over others, God is not that way. Our personality differences are all celebrated and valued by God. None are more desirable than others, they simply suit us for different things. Circle the words that best describe the way you feel you really are.

Bold	Empathetic	Self-assured	Persuasive	Big-picture Oriented	Earnest
Talkative	Hospitable	Enthusiastic	Responsive	Gentle	Fast Paced

EXPERIENCES

The things we experience in our lives help to shape who we are, our passions and how God uses us. We all have many different kinds of experiences (personal, relational, vocational, educational, spiritual) that impact us in various ways. Our experiences, positive and painful, can all shape who we are and be put to use for God.

Below, list three positive experiences that have impacted your life:

Now, list three experiences you would describe as painful that have impacted your life:

How can God use these experiences in your life and the lives of others?
